

AL2607 - The Congress of South African Students (Mamelodi Branch)

Call Number: AL2607
Title: The Congress of South African Students (Mamelodi Branch)
SubTitle:
Creator: Unknown
Origination:
Inclusive Dates: 1992, 1995
Bulk Dates:
Extent: 0.1 linear metre (1 archival box) containing 4 items (1 file)
Language: English
Acquisition: Accession Number: none
Access Restrictions: This collection is open for research
Use Restrictions: Copyright restrictions may apply. See SAHA copyright statement for Use Restrictions.
Copyright: Finding Aid: © The South African History Archive (SAHA)
Abstract: The Congress of South African Students (COSAS) is a national organisation established in Pietermaritzburg in 1979. The aim of COSAS was to co-ordinate student activities in different regions and to unite all students against discrimination in education. COSAS strove for a dynamic free and compulsory education for all, for a spirit of co-operation and trust between students, parents and teachers and for a spirit of trust and companionship between students.

Introduction

The Congress of South African Students is a national organisation established in Pietermaritzburg in 1979. COSAS' aim was to co-ordinate student activities in different regions and to unite all students against discrimination in education. COSAS strove for a dynamic free and compulsory education for all, for a spirit of co-operation and trust between students, parents and teachers and for a spirit of trust and companionship between students.

Notes on the Collection

This collection comprises photocopies of "Code of Conduct for Schools"; final working document "School Governance"; articles from New Nation series "Build your Organisation" and a membership card.

Inventory

- A1: "Code of Conduct for Schools"
- A2: Final working document "School Governance"
- A3: Articles from New Nation series "Build your Organisation"
- A4: Membership card