

Oral interviews conducted by Dr. Catherine Higgs, University of Tennessee, during the period of 2005-2006, for the project "Faith, Politics and Resistance: Catholic Nuns in Apartheid South Africa". The project relates experiences of Catholics during the Apartheid era in South Africa from 1948-1994, and will be released in book form under the (working) title "Sisters for Justice: Catholic Women Religious". The interviews are available on CD, there are currently no transcripts. The researcher included signed Release forms and Deed of gift forms for each person. Anyone interested in using these interviews may please contact Dr. Catherine Higgs on chiggs@utk.edu for permission, until the 31 December 2014, after which the interviews may be used freely.
