

A2979f Guy Brunton Papers, 1929-1939

3 files, including some photographic images

The collection contains the papers of Guy Brunton (1878-1948), an English archaeologist and Egyptologist who discovered the Badarian culture.

- 1 Booklets and newspaper clips, 1928-1930
Including: Guide to Egyptian Antiquities from Mostagedda, Badari District, Middle Egypt 1928 and 1929, exhibited in The Nineveh Gallery, British Museum in 1929 and 1930; newspaper clips covering Guy Brunton's archaeological expedition to Middle Egypt as well as the exhibitions
- 2 Journal reviews of Brunton's book 'Mostagedda and the Tasian culture' , 1930-1939
- 3 Correspondence, 1928-1940
Including 3 reports by Guy Brunton relating to his exhibitions, handwritten and typed; correspondence to Guy Brunton