

A2777 BANESHIK, Percy

Papers, 1955-1996 3 boxes

- A Articles by Percy Baneshik on various subjects and sundry correspondence in 1990s
- B "The Von Veltheim Case" a feature for radio by Percy Baneshik 1955 Also a book by Valerie Rosenberg: "The Von Veltheim File" 1997
- C Research materials collected by Baneshik with a view to a historical book on KW Von Veltheim, a German adventurer who was tried for the murder of Woolf Joel in 1898 and deported, returning to South Africa later to search for the Kruger Millions which he claimed to have helped to bury. He was again deported and died in Hamburg in 1930.

Research materials include press cuttings (some of the 1898 trial and others); photographs, letters written by Baneshik to various archives and individuals, with replies, and articles on Von Veltheim Correspondence is mainly dated 1966
- D Research material on Frits Joubert Duquesne, master spy and adventurer.
- E Articles by Louis Cohen: 'Reminiscences of Johannesburg' from 'The Winning Post', 1913, and from 'Tit-bits' 1932. (Re early days on the Rand)
- F Miscellaneous
Includes 'Springtime at Raubenheimers for Mary Slack'—(a collection of poems by Sinclair Beiles); a book of drawings by Marc Glaser; 'The place of stones' a short history of Mafikeng.