ACT NOW TO SAVE PEACE !

The Anglo-French-Israeli invasion of Egypt has brought the world to the brink of atomic war. Protests from millions of peace-loving people throughout the world, including the people of Britain, have brought about a "cease-fire" order from the United Nations, and a request to all combatants to their borders.

BUT THIS ORDER IS NOT CARRIED OUT!

Further re-inforcements are being sent to the invading armies in Egypt. Britain and France continue to occupy Egyptian territory. As Egypt calls for volunteers from friendly countries, the situation grows more and more tense.

Every delay undermines the authority of the United Nations and brings the World closer to a general war. Such a war, employing nuclear weapons, would spread terrible death and destruction throughout the world.

That is why the World Council of Peace has called on men and women throughout the world to act now for peace, to make their voices heard.

Let the voice of the South African people be heard too!

Demand that:

ALL INVADING TROOPS MUST LEAVE EGYPT.AN SOIL!
STOP THE WAR IN EGYPT!
ON GUARD FOR PEACE!
