Your phone call this morning was followed soon after
by arrival of your letter of July 21.

Of course I shall be at the unveiling and I am deeply honoured by the Committee's invitation for me to speak at the ceremony. I accept humbly and with pleasure.
I shall aim at giving the sort of "biographical"
background which you discussed with me.

My wife will be with me, and possibly some of our children also.

I look forward to being able to see you again,

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

BENJAMIN POGRUND
