

NOTE FROM PRISONER SOBUKWE

The Star's Africa News
Service

SALISBURY, Thursday.

A SMUGGLED prison message from Robert Sobukwe, the South African Pan-Africanist leader jailed yesterday for three years, reached Accra recently, and was read to Dr. Nkrumah's "positive action" conference of African states.

In it he said: "We, the leaders of the Pan-Africanist Congress, are not afraid to face the consequences of our action.

"In spite of the Government's ruthless suppression of our struggle, we are convinced that we shall be free by 1963, and towards that end we shall continue to struggle."
