

117, Prince Edward Street,
DURBAN.

10th March, 1930.

The Editor,
'Natal Mercury'.

Sir,

I see that according to to-day's 'Mercury' "about 20 I.C.U. pickets were seen to gather in the neighbourhood of the Mariannahill Monastery, armed with sticks, apparently in readiness for action." This report is written by you in connection with the happenings at the Mariannahill Monastery and the heading to your article is 'All quiet on the Pinetown Front'.

Mr. Editor, the I.C.U. gets quite enough ill feeling directed at it in connection with its legitimate aspirations on behalf of the natives, but the I.C.U. does not interfere with religious disputes. The I.C.U. have nothing to do with this business at the Mariannahill Monastery, and I would be obliged if you would correct the impression that we have anything to do with it or that we are interfering with religious concerns.

I am, sir,

Yours obediently,

General Secretary, I.C.U. Yase Natal

Collection Number: A922

Allison Wessels George CHAMPION Papers, 1925-1959

PUBLISHER:

Publisher:- Historical Papers Research Archive

Location:- Johannesburg

©2013

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of a collection held at the Historical Papers Research Archive at The University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.