

MEMO. ON DET/HD/CONST. TRUTH.

Witness is a very poor reporter who takes his notes in longhand. His notes are full of omissions, incompleted sentences, ungrammatical and unintelligible language. For example see Naicker's speech at p. 3866 (V.20), and also Ex. G. 452.

See also x-examination on p. 3913 (V.20), where witness concedes he cannot take down half of what is said, som-times is unable to indicate in his notes when he has omitted something, on occasions loses the thread of what he is trying to memorise, that he also rolls two sentences into one and that portions of his notes are unintelligible.

Also see p. 3915 (V.20), when witness concedes that the advocacy of non-violence and repudiation of race-hatred are characteristic of the sort of things said at meetings he has attended, and that these things are said at "virtually every meeting of the Indian Congress".

Meeting No.262:

at p. 3865,V20. This was a meeting re W.A. Removal Scheme, which was attended inter alia by Prof. Kuper who spoke on behalf of the Liberal Party. His speech was omitted by the Crown and so was that of H...Mall. Both these speeches should be put in as they emphasise the desire for non-violence on the part of those opposing W.A.Removal. Examine witness also as to his notes and compare them with Ex. G. 448.

See also N.I.Naicker's speech where he reads a message from Dr. Naicker - p.3866 (V20).

(not contained in Ex. G.448)- advocating non-violence - Witness to explain his notes on Dr. Naicker's message which he has reported very badly.

Meeting 266:
at p. 3905,
(v.20).

A speech by M.P. Naicker (15 140) was referred to by Adv. Pinow. This was a Stalin Memorial Party, at which Stalin's achievements were praised. For comments thereon see Caker's memo. p.50 & 51).

NON - VIOLENCE. ETC.

H.E. MALL:

"Everyone can tell you we have never preached violence, the views of the Congress are known on violence.....I again state that the Congresses are opposed to violence...Have we ever advocated violence against the whites, (cries of "No, No.") We do not preach hatred of the white man...we believe in a peaceful co-existence....(N.B., Said at W.A. Removal meeting).

DR. NAICKER:

message read
by N...Naicker
(V.14).

"xxx All Congresses in tradition on.... Gandhi...all races work for peace.... I repudiate allegations by Malan that force was contemplated. We wish to state we never threatened to use violence....evidence that we are self-controlled. We shall not hear ? for non-violence". (p. 3866 & 7, V.20).

DEBI SINGH

(149).

At a Stalin Memorial Meeting, says "We do not ~~want~~ meet to glory an associate because he was a Communist.....as we meet here we are not concerned with Communism.... We are not interested in a Communist State and his ideologies...great men like Nehru, a great fighter against Communism paid tribute to Stalin".)x. G. 454, pp. 1 & 2)
