Examination in Native Languages

I understand there is likely to be an examination in native languages early next year. Last year I was examined in Seiwana & passed successfully vide letter No. N.C.A. 291/06. I was also informed that I would require no further examination. I presume this still holds true. I am now anxious to study another native language, but feel diffident about beginning before I am quite certain I shall not be required for any further examination. Will you kindly advise me on this point.

Mr. D. R. Hunt:

Examination in Native Languages.

The secretary for Native Affairs,
Pretoria.

For your information.

Mr. Hunt is desirous of studying the Sesuto Language, which will be much more useful in the performance of his Inspection duties than will Secwana. I recommend therefore that he be given the assurance that if, in the future, he gives his attention to the studying of Sesuto, he will not be required to pass any further examination early next year in Secwana, as, you will observe, he anticipates will be the case.
