

MEMORANDUM ON MOSES MANANYWA.

witness is a native Detective Constable, stationed at Stellenbosch. Advocate Pirow referred to a speech made by Makholiso (86) which was reported by the witness. (p.3597, V.18). (See Coaker's notes at p.11 of his Memo on the Pirow address).

This witness is a very poor reporter and much of what he has recorded is quite unintelligible. See p. 3598, V.18.

He could in cross-examination be asked to explain those portions of his recordings which on the face of it do not make sense.

I do not think that any importance need be attached to this witness.

He records two meetings, Nos. 214 and 216, which are to be found on p. 3597, V.18.
