

3.3
Moscow, 26-1-27.

Dear Mamma.

Although I sent you a letter the other day telling you of all I have done to assist you, and I foresaw that you will be relieved in time, as it proved correct. I am writing again to tell you that I received your last letter with enclosure. I will wait a while to hear from you how you stand, perhaps it will not be necessary to borrow any thing on the policy. Of course 1, pound in time of need is of more value than a hundred when you do not need it so much, so, that it is not so terrible if you borrow the money if you will be in great need of it. However, in a week or so I will see how far it will be necessary for you to get it, and then I will send it on to you. I told you many times not to worry too much about any thing, for the simple reason, that it does not help one. as you see I am right, and Vera is quite right in telling you the same thing. It will all come out in the wash as the saying goes. Now with regard to your remarks about the letters to the children

11

It is really silly of you as well as Vera to make any remarks. If you were 11, years of age, or if Vera was 11, years as Nilda, I would write to you, as well as Vera the same as I write to Nilda. But in as far as you are a little older, and Vera is already a young lady, I presume
I have to take that into consideration.

Now I hope by now the gentleman I wrote to you about has called & carried out my wishes. I wish in all probability her from you to that effect. Has Mr. Bernstein seen you? also I asked Barlow before he left to see you has he done so?
Now for the time being that's all Au Revoir

Kind regards to all friends. Love to you all
as ever Sam

Moscow 26-1-27

Dear Mamie.

Although I sent you a letter the other day telling you of all I have done to assist you, and I foresaw that you will be relieved in time, as it proved correct. I am writing again to tell you that I received your last letter with enclosure. I will wait a while to hear from you how you stand, perhaps it will not be necessary to borrow any thing on the policy. Of course I. pound in time of need is of more value than a hundred when you do not need it so much. So, that it is not so terrible if you borrow the money if you will be in great need of it. However, in a week or so I will see how far it will be necessary for you to get it, and then I will send it on to you. I told you many times not to worry too much about any thing, for the simple reason, that it does not help one. As you see I am right, and Vera is quite right in telling you the same thing. It will all come out in the wash as the saying goes. Now with regard to your remarks about the letters to the children. It is really silly of you as well as Vera to make any remarks. If you were 11 years of age, or if Vera was 11 years as Hilda, I would write to you, as well as Vera the same as I write to Hilda. But in as far as you are a little older, and Vera is already a young lady, I presume I have to take that into consideration.

Now I hope by now the Gentleman I wrote to you about has called & carried out my wishes. I will in all probability hear from you to that effect. Has Mr. Bernstein seen you? Also I asked Barlow before he left to see you has he done so?

Now for the time being that is all. Au Rouvar

Kind regards to

All friends. Love to you all

As ever Sam

Collection Number: A3299

Collection Name: Hilda and Rusty BERNSTEIN Papers, 1931-2006

PUBLISHER:

Publisher: Historical Papers Research Archive

Collection Funder: Bernstein family

Location: Johannesburg

©2015

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of the Hilda and Rusty Bernstein Papers, held at the Historical Papers Research Archive, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.