Dear Mr. Coquard,

I hope you received the letter I wrote to you last week.

I phoned you last Wednesday but was told that you were away.

Yesterday, I received a letter from Mrs. Mokhele (the twins' guardian) to the effect that she has not received the money yet. Most probably, she has received it by now.

But to be on the safe side, I posted it yesterday - 29th. I asked her to keep it for next month's fee even if she had received yours.

If you have not obtained all the contents of your purse, I shall be very grateful if you could send me a sum of R. 44.

William had asked me to buy her a pair of black shoes and a blazer. I also want to buy him some blankets. They can't trade.

his old ones which he left at Lettich's place.

With the money you gave me
last time, I had a sum of twenty my name for Denis bicycles and settled all my accounts.

With best wishes,

I am,

Sincerely,

Rebecca Lettich
