

“PLATOON”

B1.7-33

What does this award-winning film say to us?

- War is futile, wasteful and destructive
- Participation in war degrades both aggressors and their victims
- The damage caused by war is counted not only in money, but in the death, maiming and psychological crippling of soldiers and civilians.

We in ECC say: War is no solution! Let's choose peace! The political problems of our country can only be solved by political solutions which accommodate the aspirations of all our people. Waging war in Namibia and using the SADF to repress protest in black townships can only add to the damage which apartheid has already done to our society, as more and more young people are killed, maimed and brutalized daily.

The ECC is working for a just peace! Right now, we are engaged in a nationwide campaign to counter the growing militarization in our country, and to demonstrate that National Service need not be military, but can be peaceful and constructive. If you would like to know more about ECC and its projects, write to us at 2nd Floor, Khotso House, 42 de Villiers Street, Johannesburg 2001, and watch the press for details.
