END CONSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN

THE ECC is a national coalition organisation calling for an end to compulsory military service in the SADF. The thrust of our campaign work is a positive one. As well as strenuously opposing the call-up, we want to show our commitment to working for a just, peaceful and democratic South Africa.

Thousands of our supporters around the country have joined us this month in our "Working for a Just Peace" projects. We have built parks and creches, painted hospitals and clinics; we have taught people to drive, worked in resettlement areas and we have planted trees and vegetable gardens.

Through these projects we have been exercising our own free choice about serving our country. Our work has been constructive, it has contributed to meeting the needs of the majority of people in our land and has involved close consultation with them and with representative community organisations. Through this we have shown that a peaceful and constructive national service is a real and viable alternative to being called up in the SADF.

Our "Working for a Just Peace" campaign ends on Tuesday, April 29 with a giant Peace Rally in the Johannesburg City Hall. All are welcome to attend!

Let us citizens of Johannesburg, black and white, come together to show our commitment to peace and justice.

Let us say NO to apartheid war in our country.

Let us say TROOPS OUT OF THE TOWNSHIPS NOW.

Let us call for an END TO CONSCRIPTION.

Let us call for a JUST PEACE in our land.
