The Rev. Tsho Kotze,
P.O. Box 955,
CAPE TOWN.

Dear Mr Kotze,

I am sorry to have missed you in Cape Town last week, when I called at your office, and also in Kimberley on Thursday. As you no doubt know, I was in Kimberley to see Bob Sobukwe, and he told me about seeing you.

He told me that you had indicated that there might be people willing to assist him in becoming settled again, and I hope that you will not mind my presuming to write to you on this score. I am taking the liberty of doing so because, during my three days in Kimberley, I went thoroughly into his needs. The most important of these at present are the questions of finding suitable employ ment (and this is being gone into) and furnishing his new home. For this to be adequately done will cost anything up to R1,000, and any amount which could be made available towards this would be tremendously useful. The immediate targets are the purchase of a lounge suite, bedroom suite, refrigerator, stove, linen, carpets, etc.

As I say, I trust that you will not mind writing to me about these details. I thought that it might also be of some assistance to you.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

BENJAMIN POGREUD
