Dear Alan Paton,

We are still expecting an article from you for the PEN 1960 Year Book. I wish to stress that the Year Book will not be out till late in the year so that so that any association with the Uman Festival will be purely coincidental. We are anxious to have you in the issue, so may we hope to see you further soon.

28th June, 1960.

Dear Lewis,

I am enclosing a story for the 1960 Yearbook which I hope will be found acceptable.

I have just been reading Sara Gertrude's articles in the SUNDAY TIMES. I must say that she does live in the past, though I think that is to be expected of someone so attached to Smuts, and in a lesser degree, to Rhodes, whose South Africa will never return.

Best wishes for the Yearbook.

Yours sincerely,
