

MEMORANDUM ON P. NDUNGU W/DET/SGF.

This witness is quite one of the most inefficient and poor reporters called by the Crown. His notes are filled with unintelligible gibberish. I do not think that any importance can be attached to his notes of meetings and in any event his notes, with a couple of exceptions, contain nothing of importance.

This witness is also extremely stupid - see x-examination p. 2507 to 2517 (V.13). and again on p. 2634.

No questions were put to witness re force and violence and racial animosity, but his notes contain certain utterances which repudiate any such suggestion. Perhaps he should be questioned thereon.

Meeting No. 100.

p. 2633 (V.14). Modise (41). "The people who are writing Ex. G. 173. here - where are they going to stay when we chase all the white people to oversea".
Ex. G. 172, p.2.

NON - VIOLENCE. ETC.

H. TSHABALALA (77).

"Those people who don't know will think we are fighting with the "Dutches". We are not fighting with "Dutches" even the old "dutches" Paul we're not fighting - we want them to be changed in this stage where they are to-day". G. 141. p.2.

4TH SPEAKER (UNKNOWN).

"Let the black and white rule this country - they should be equal". G. 214 - p.2.

S. MALUPI (31)1

"We Congress have told the Govt. that our organisation is non-violence". Ex. G. 1061 . p.1.

B. SEITCHIRO (64).

"You Government of power our organised is non-violence but Govt. play with blood of innocent people. You Swart you live in fear...it is not ourselves who frighten you is your people who tell you lots of things. You should come yourself to A.M.C. meetings - the only thing we want is freedom." Ex. J. 1061. 4. 2.
