Dear Alec,

I have had a polite refusal from de Crespigny,
but I am writing to him again.

I have been away nearly all the month, but hope to get a reply from Hurley tomorrow.

What is the position in regard to Brookes and Feetham.

Hansi came to see me and we discussed things for more than an hour. Very useful.

Hope you are well.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Alec,

I had a letter from Mary B. in London, and she tells me that they have sent money to various individuals, which I think include Pat D. and J. de B., and people in Pretoria and Maritzburg. They say they have done this because they still have received no information from Johannesburg that the D & A Fund is now established. I thought you would like to know this.

I must also let you know that Archbishop H. is unable to become a sponsor, and Air Vice Marshall has also refused. I am not sure whether I told you about this because I am not keeping duplicates at the moment, but I think perhaps I have been over careful, and I shall start keeping them again.

Did I also ask you whether you want me to approach Brookes and Feetham? Please let me know.

I hope you are well.

Yours sincerely,

P.S. According to Hansi, there is now a revised memo on the D & A Fund. Mine is dated November, 1959. If there is a later one, please send it.
