On the basis of information the UDF has with regard to the call for a stayaway from work by the RMC, it is clear that the call only applied to Monday 17.

The UDF notes with concern that people returning from work are facing problems of not having heeded the stayaway call. In this regard the UDF wishes to emphasise that the call was only for one day.

There's therefore need for absolute restraint and discipline on the part of all who wish to prolong the stayaway. This measure is prone to bring about unnecessary loss of life and destruction of property.

The UDF condemns in the strongest terms the government's action of banning all meetings. Meetings at this point are absolutely necessary to resolve the present state of affairs. The government's action only exacerbates a highly volatile situation.
