

No bail for 66

(From Page 1)

weary parents left the Supreme Court. All they knew was that their children would not be charged before Monday and there was no chance of bail.

At one stage during the night one student walked into the charge office at John Vorster Square carrying a placard saying "Release the Innocents."

He was promptly locked up.

According to student sources, these are the students arrested yesterday: Robin van der Plank (Anglican chaplain), Marika Sboros, Gavin Gardy, Bernard Hess, Charles Mendelow, Craig Williamson, Maureen Caplan, Daphne Jacobson, Gillian Hall, Alana Dishy, Christopher Martin, Simon Conradie, Bruce Davies, Alan Mabin, Peter Daniels, David Walker, Stephen Mendel, Kim du Toit, Stephen Lipan, Stanley Goldstein, Stevan Barber.

Colin Lamont, Seymour Kantor, Malcolm Rosenfeld, Carol Fischer, Monty Ho, Derek Brown, Robyn Shenker, Mervyn Musnitsky, Dave Wolpe, Geoff Shuttleworth, Andrew Love, Russell Grinker, Evan Oxenhaf, Allan Levine, Ricky Burnett, Ralph Kahn, Maurice Smithers, Jasper Mortimer, Gavin Keevy, Alan Simpson, Basil Payne, Anton Johnston, Judy Favish, Glenda Milne, John Weaver, Brenda Callan, Leonard Sherman.

Lindy Sifrin, Jenny Cunningham, Felicity Lewis, Pat Horn, Sally Cunniffe, Jenny van Biljon, Lyn Bays, Anne Martins, Margaret Fish, Dehlia Rezek, Renia Jameson, Stan Been, Marcia Rollnick, Helen Sideris, John Brown, Roy Cuckow, Stephen Barker and Chris Wood.

Miss Caroline Clark, of the Sunday Times, and Mr Larry Butchins, of the Sunday Tribune, were also arrested.