My dear Alan,

Regret very much but it was just impossible to meet you in Harismith; as much as I would like to have a chat with you it was just out of the question as my sister is very seriously ill in Bloemfontein and I am committed there.

The Odendaal report of S.W.A. is going to land our Nat. "friends" in big trouble & I do believe soon too.

I have just had two very interesting, though regrettable, incidents with the B.A.D. people. The one regarding a school issue & the other recruiting of minors.

Shall have them over to the press in due course.

Please hand my sub. in to the office.

Thanks.

Fondly regards to you & Dore.

Alan
