My darling Vera:

I have just received your letter & contents and without putting it off for one minute I have signed the application form & sent it straight off to the Education Committee as required. Though you did not put it in an envelope as stated in your letter..

My total income is somewhere about £40 per month. I stated it & hope this amount does not include exclude the chances of Hilda getting her allowance etc

I have not altered any thing in the form and I think that it was filled up quite correctly. I am sorry dear girl that you are having some unpleasantness with the changing of your Surname. You know however the reason why it was some at the time. The best way to get out of this difficulty is to write & explain that your father at that time traded under another name and that we were all known as Nolts. I think that it will be quite all right, and there isn't any reason why you should be disbelieved. I hope you will succeed in your undertakings. Do not lose Courage!

Mr. Edwoods of Courm I remember well, and no doubt he remembers me too. He used to like me very much. I remember their girl too. I am sorry darling I haven't an opportunity of writing of all the adventures. If I can manage one day to get you over to Moscow, you will see things for your own self.

I sent Mama a letter the other day so am not writing any more just now. I shall be leaving in a fortnight time from now, but will let you know by wire wherever I'll be.

Give my love to mama Olga & Hilda. Write when you can

Wishing you all the luck in the world Yours ever loving

Papa
P.S.

Before leaving Kaderostok I will wire you.

Papa
