that the money in the handkerchief was.

Mrs. Ngabola says she was informed that a sum of £1.6.8. was found in the Mrs. Isie's handkerchief.

Mrs Mohutsi sent Mrs Kgabale to collect the money from Mrs Eie's house.

Mr Dichaba was consulted after collection of money from Mrs Jies home. a sum of £6.17.6 & 3.10 was used for a message to the travelling agency for the reported concern ing passes for women the remedial was taken by Miss M^{Motgatebe} Makhala for the filing of the bail of the arrested w.
She further decided on her own that she could not come to go-bura, but her mother refused, for her name is mentioned already and the police may take her mother if she had gone to go-bura. because the telegrams were not sent they were lying in the post office,
