

16. March 1926.

Dear Mami.

I received both your letters & post card at the same day and I thank you very much for the information about Hilda.

I had a few very anxious nights. I had all sorts of dreams... Tell me has she a mole left on her face, & will it remain? My poor darling little Hilda. You must have had a rotten time yourself.

I am sorry, but can do nothing you want to know what to do about the holidays. Well it is difficult for me to advise you. I think if I were you I would try now to put an advert. at the agents to let the house for the month of August, you are yourself entitled to 3 weeks holiday, and in respect of the fact that I may be with you you can arrange for the money you might get for letting the place to take your holiday. Of course it is all very well to give you advice.

It is not quite so easy to do it. You be sure I know all that. However you can try & see. The garden? Well, of course it is nicer to have it done, and if you can get some help for a few shillings why not. I can not write you any thing at present Hilda is my mind & nothing else at present.

I hear that S. may not return to London, so that I will arrange to settle your debts through other sources, you do not worry about that, if a week or so passes before you can settle the bills. I am quite well again, & hope to keep so. The weather here is still cold there is still a lot of snow, & frost, but the sun is shining.

I will write you again in a day or so.

I all my love to Darling Hilda & you of you as ever before

paper

16 March 1926

Dear Mamie. I received both your letters & post card at the same day and I think you very much for the information about Hilda. I had a few very anxious nights. I had all sorts of dreams ... Tell me has she a mark left on her face, & will it remain? My poor darling little Hilda. You must have had a rotten time yourself. I am sorry, but can do nothing. You want to know what to do about the holidays. Well it is difficult for me to advise you. I think if I were you I would try now to put an advert. at the agents to let the house for the month of August. You are yourself entitled to 3 weeks holiday and irrespect of the fact that I may be with you you can arrange for the money you might get for letting the place to take your holiday. Of course it is all very well to give you advice. It is not quite so easy to do it. You be sure I know all that. However you can try & see. The garden? Well, of course, it is nicer to have it done, and if you can get some help for a few shillings why not. I can-not write you anything at present. Hilda is my mind & nothing else at present. I hear that S. may not return to London, so that I will arrange to settle your debts through other sources. Only do not worry about that, if a week or so passes before you can settle the bills. I am quite well again, & hope to keep so. The weather here is still cold. There is still a lot of snow, & frost, but the sun is shining. I will write you again in a day or so.

All my love to Darling Hildagcka & all of you

As ever before

Papa

Collection Number: A3299

Collection Name: Hilda and Rusty BERNSTEIN Papers, 1931-2006

PUBLISHER:

Publisher: Historical Papers Research Archive

Collection Funder: Bernstein family

Location: Johannesburg

©2015

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of the Hilda and Rusty Bernstein Papers, held at the Historical Papers Research Archive, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.