1. Comrade Hilda Bernstein, as a White who's in the liberation struggle, how do you characterise the fascist Vorster regime?
2. What is your comment on the fact that the fascist regime say, that it act in the interests of all the whites in our country by oppressing and humiliating the Black majority?
3. What can you say about the policies of the present fascist regime, that is, Apartheid or Separate Development?
- ✓ 4. To what do you attribute the continued victories of the Nationalist Party in the General Elections since 1948, and especially the recent landslide victory it scored in the last elections; why this increasing support to the fascist regime by the all-white electorate?
- ✓ 5. Would you say the need for co-operation between Black and White in our country in the fight against fascism and national oppression of the Africans, is greater now than in the past, if so, why?
- ✓ 6. To be involved in the liberation struggle being a white South African entails the loss of privileges enjoyed under Apartheid, what can you say in connection with this?
7. What more can you say to conclude our discussion?

+Mobilise whites for the struggle

+mention that not all whites are enemies of the revolution

+That united we shall defeat the fascist easily, but divided it shall cost us a lot etc.
