

25
Lynton Road,
KLOOF.

17th August, 1956.

Dear Jack and Ida,

I have just been in touch with Jordan Ngubane who tells me that Mr. Moerane left some days ago, presumably to go to Johannesburg and finally to England. I cannot help feeling that Mr. Moerane had no intention of taking part in any kind of protest about the closing down of Adams College. Why he wastes his time in producing these plays when the Government so obviously has his approval, I do not know. Jordan tells me, however, that he is fully determined that the strongest possible protest be made.

Meanwhile Peter and I have been discussing the matter and we are very anxious that Adams should go out with a bang. While we know that you do not wish a closing function to be political, yet we would like to know what we could do to help you in this. I would even be in a position to make a certain donation towards the cost of any such farewell function from funds which have been sent to me by friends in America. We are not desirous of getting any publicity for the Party in this matter, but are only wanting to let you know that any help we can give is yours for the asking.

Warmest regards.

Yours sincerely,

Collection Number: AD1169

Collection Name: Alan Paton Papers, 1952-1988

PUBLISHER:

Publisher: Historical Papers Research Archive, University of the Witwatersrand

Location: Johannesburg

©2016

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document forms part of the archive of the South African Institute of Race Relations, held at the Historical Papers Research Archive, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.