A.J. Lutuli Esq.,
Groutville.

Dear Sir, --

I have to again ask you to attend to the matter of your canefield and the money you owe to this man Bulose. Last year you promised to see me the second week in October. I waited for you but you did not come to see me.

I understand that you have cut your cane and I take it that you have no further use of the place.

I have tried my best to avoid creating unpleasantness between me and you in this matter but it appears that you are forcing me to appear as though I am unreasonable to you.

It seems impossible to understand what you are up to in this matter which is purely a business matter.

Because you did not reply to my communications I had to write to Mr Mzoneji and asked him to assist.

It would appear that he too is failing to move you. Now the only other course to take is a legal action.

Will you please let me know what I should expect you to do now in this matter?

Do you still want the place or not. How do you propose to settle up the account standing in your name as a debt?

I shall be glad to hear from you at your earliest.

Yours faithfully
