

undated

In view of the change of Government and the possibility of a more sympathetic cabinet. The Council is of opinion that the Executive should arrange for Deputations to visit as

- a) The Minister for Native Affairs, in re: recommendations of the Economic Commission
- b) The Minister of Justice & Native Affairs, in re: pass laws and petty statutory offences: and imprisonment for petty offence, generally
- c) The Minister of Education, in re: native education.

Each deputation to prepare fully facts & figures and arguments, ^{so} as to present a strong case to the respective Ministers.

Further, a summary of the case to be presented to each Minister to be printed and circulated ^{away} to all members of Parliament, Provincial & Town Councils, etc.

Paragraph 3. Provisional draft of Resolution etc. The economic condition of the native races in rural areas and Native territories should be improved by releasing more land for occupation & use of Native people and by ~~providing~~ ^{forming} facilities for improved agriculture in order to prevent the influx into the towns of natives unable to make a living in their homes and to reduce the unemployment which is producing the present considerable class of vagrants.

Church Roll
for the year
1850

Collection Number: AD843

XUMA, A.B., Papers

PUBLISHER:

Publisher:- Historical Papers Research Archive

Location:- Johannesburg

©2013

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of the archive of the South African Institute of Race Relations, held at the Historical Papers Research Archive at the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.