

26th April, 1966

Dr Marvin Wachman,
President,
Lincoln University,
Pennsylvania,
U.S.A.

Dear Dr Wachman,

Further to my letter of March 28, I have now had another letter from Bob Sobukwe, written on March 30. At that time, he had not yet received any of the textbooks he needs and he was rather worried about it as his studies were being affected.

I hope you will will not mind my approaching you, but I am anxious to know when the books which you have kindly agreed to arrange for Bob might be reaching him. If you will let me have this information, I shall immediately telegraph him. I am making the same check with others who have agreed to supply books.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

BENJAMIN POGRUND
