FESTIVAL REPORT
WORKSHOP AND PLENARY SESSIONS

16 July: Friday Evening Opening Address

Keynote speakers

Nelson Mandela - Faxed an invitation to the President's office inviting Mandela to deliver the keynote address. He will be in the UK until the 10th May. His schedule is very tight.

Sheena Duncan - sent her an invitation to deliver opening address - she will be away until the 27th May.

Maggie O'Kane - Guardian journalist. According to John Paterson (who works with her) Maggie is a very fluent and good speaker but is controversial and one-sided. Left many messages for her. Sent a fax to her giving background of the ECC. Phone her on Monday 10th May.

Other suggestions for the Keynote speaker have been Cardinal Arns, Bruce Kent, Marjorie Thompson and ~~EP~~ Thompson.

Saturday 17 July

(The group for the first theme consists of David, Jonathan, Adelle and Helmut)

9:00 ECC focus (45 minutes)

"Talk-show style"

Mike Routenbach will host the talk-show and will interview:

Richard Steele (CO)

Nan Cross (from COSG to ECC)

Janet Cherry (women's involvement in ECC)

Chris De Villiers (ECC today)

9:45 Plenary: International models of peace keeping (45 minutes)

Bishop Storey to chair this session he will give a brief input (when introducing these speakers) about the concept of peace. We have set up a meeting with him for the 12 May.

Angela King - Sent her letter inviting her to speak at the festival and a festival programme. Will be setting up a meeting with her in the near future. James Kanu will get back to me as soon as he has briefed Ms King.

Margaret Anstee (UN obswver to Angola) I have managed to track her down. David will brief her.

11:00 Workshops: Peace Keeping in South Africa (90 minutes)

* Violence Monitoring - Met with Venitia Govender and Sally Sealey (26th April) from the Independent Board, they are interested in giving a workshop on violence monitoring. Focus on the reasons for the violence the contribution of violence monitors. State's response to independent monitors. Personal experiences. What contribution violence monitoring is making in curbing the levels of violence. Venitia has agreed to join our first session working group.

Meeting with Venitia on the 4th May. (Jonathan, Adelle and David) we agreed that Venitia will be used as a consultant rather than in the group itself as she does not have an understanding of where ECC is at the moment. She does, however, have excellent resources and contacts and has a good perception of the issues involved in Peace Keeping in South Africa. We discussed the programme of the first theme with her.

* Violence monitoring/intervention

Venitia and Sally will run a workshop/seminar on violence monitoring with training in violence intervention.

* Defending communities against violence

(1) [Eldorado Park]- Gerald Williamson from Eldorado Park Centre for Peace Action expressed an interest in running this workshop. David and Jonathan met with him on Friday 30 April, Gerald gave a background on the centre and how it functions in the Eldorado Park community. He outlined the services it provides to the community and he explained the impact of the Centre on both inter-personal and organisational violence. The centre has also researched the idea of community policing. The centre delivered a paper to the National Peace Accord which was very well received.

(2) [SDU members] - We agreed to use as many people from the Vaal as possible, including local civic and SDU members. At the ECC FOG meeting - (4th May) Venitia was given the mandate to approach members of the SDU. The idea is for these people to give an account of why they joined the SDU's? What are the reasons for the continued existence of the SDU's? Have the SDU's become uncontrollable? Is there any hope for a peaceful transformation of the SDU's?

We debated the idea of having the SDU members speaking under the heading "defending communities against violence".

(3) [Hostel Residents] - We also discussed the possibility of having a workshop on the initiatives of hostel and township residents in making peace. Eg the Jeppe and the Selby hostels.

* National Peace Accord (Possibly Panel discussion)

I met with Peter Harris on 28th April, he gave ideas on who should present workshops on some of our suggestions. He thought a panel discussion was a possibility. His idea of a panel discussion would include signatories of the Peace Accord. He suggested Sydney Mufamadi of the ANC (Sydney has provisionally agreed to present the workshop) , Pirashow Camay of the NPA ( I have left messages for Mr Camay). It might be an idea to have a panel discussion on the successes and failures of the Accord. Each member of the panel will speak for 10 minutes with half an hour for discussion. The panel will not only include signatories of the Peace Accord (ANC and NP) but also groups who are not accountable to the Peace Accord. Laura Polecutt from LHR was suggested as the NGO speaker. She has gone overseas and will be back on the 16th June.

* Peace Keeping Force

Brian Currin - Meeting Wednesday 12 May

Janine Rauch - Jonathan & David met with Janine on the 4th May we discussed the possibility of a future Peace keeping force with specific reference to the police. She felt that we needed to concentrate on examples of initiatives, where the police and the community had successfully played a role in maintaining/making peace together. Such examples she gave are the Mpopomeni and Mannenberg communities. She added that we need to look at the composition of a Peace Keeping Force (PKF) whose job should it be ? and should a PKF be used as a force of enforcement or reconstruction ?

We need to concentrate on accountable Policing, Policing for peace, and drawing in the youth (ANCYL & SDU members into a future peace keeping force)

2:00 Plenary: Control of the armed forces in transition
(70 minutes)

We have been in touch with Calven Kahn who will speak to Mojo and other members of MK about the festiville.

Overview Rocky Williams (20 minutes)
Laurie Nathan

Workshops Laurie Nathan Rocky williams, Calven Kahn, Abba Omma, Janine Rauch , Gerald Williamson and Brian Currin.

Jonathan went to speak to Koinonia about the workshop on war tax resistance. It seems that Koinonia are networking the idea of withholding taxes to a corrupt government. They are planning to set up a democratically constituted trust fund. Their campaign involves four stages:

- 1) When paying Taxes send a letter of protest
- 2) Pay taxes in small change
- 3) Don't send money but rather items that you would like your money to be used on eg blankets and hospital equipment
- 4) Complete withholding of taxes

They would be interested in running a workshop on war tax resistance and see it as an oppertunity to network /campain support. They have not been supported by any political organisations. An idea might be to withhold a percentage of your income tax which would be budgeted for defence.

Sunday 18th July

9:00 Inter-faith prayers for peace (90 minutes)

10:30 Overview Jackie Cock (15 minutes)

Workshops (75 minutes)

These speakers are suggestions from Jackie Cock

Richard Steele has agreed to be the co-ordinator of this section. He has set up a group in Durban to conceptualise this theme. The group will have met by the 15th May and includes people who are currently involved in ECC (Illa Thompson, Anita Kromberg, Rob Goldman and Sue Britain). Richard suggested that this theme be called "Developing a peaceful society" which will be more encompassing than the original idea of "developing a culture of peace."

Abba Omma (Arms industry)

Adelle Kirsten (Peace education)

David Figg (SA's Nuclear Capability)

Jackie Cock (A voluntary civilian service)

Di Sandler (A public works programme)

This workshop is intended to focus on what will be happening with the SADF during the period before elections:

- What role will the SADF be playing during this period? Will it continue to be deployed internally or will the SADF be removed from this role? Will the SADF be involved in the formation of a Peace Keeping Force and, if so, how ?
- Is there a need for recruitment into the SADF to continue prior to elections and what recruitment policy will it be making use of. What will happen with the conscription system ?
- What measures can be taken to prepare the SADF for the integration with other armed forces that will take place after elections ?
- How does this relate to the issue of demobilisation of SADF and other military personnel ?

Chair - Greg Mills (University of the Western Cape)
