My dear Uncle Benjie,

Thank you very much for your most interesting letter (although ^{very} brief) (smile!) which I received ^{just} days ago and thank you very much for the sum of $57.00 which you enclosed as a gift and I am very sorry to have taken so long to acknowledge it. Thank you very much to both you and Anne. I hope you won't mind the kind of stationery that I am using; in fact, my delay is due to the fact that I have been wanting to buy some writing pads but have been postponing it all the time. Today I just decided to use whatever was available before I run out of time and find myself in great trouble. I don't want to look for excuses when I see you in December. How about that?

Both Ben and myself spent our Thanksgiving long week-end in New York with Andy Young's family. We had a nice time and ate a lot of Turkey (smile!)

Please send my warmest regards to Anne, Jenny, Manda, Daniel and Gibson, and please do the same to Tata and Mama when you speak to them again. I will Finish my exams on the 13th of December and Bin finishes on the 15th of December, he'll meet me in New York.

We are looking forward to seeing you soon.

yours,
Milisa.
