Mrs. Kumalo

STORY OF ARREST IN DUBE HOME

Mrs. Rosaline Kumalo is the wife of Police Sergeant Richard Kumalo. He is standing trial with Regina Elizabeth Brooks under the Immorality Act. The Kumalo family live in police barracks.

THE TRIAL OF POLICE SERGEANT RICHARD KUMALO AND REGINA ELIZABETH BROOKS WILL CONTINUE ON THE 22ND. NOVEMBER.
 THEY WERE ARRESTED IN ONE OF THE NEW DUBE HOUSES, NO. 924.
 Regina Brooks told a Bantu World reporter that the arrest took place on a Saturday night. "We were still awake," she said.
 "There was a knock on the window at 11 o'clock. "Kumalo went to the window.
 "An African voice said: open the door. It's the police. There is trouble in the township. We want you to see it."
 Kumalo opened the window, she said.
 A white detective jumped through the window into the room.
 Then Kumalo opened the door.
 Another white detective came in, with an African detective.
 "They took us to Marshall-square," she said.
 "I spent the week-end in the cells.
 "My baby, Tandi, was with me."
 She said that in the early stages of the trial, she continued to stay in the Dube house.
 But one evening after a day in court, she was with the Kumalo family in Police Barracks in Johannesburg.
 A Dube official arrived at the barracks and spoke to Kumalo.
 He told Kumalo that Regina Brooks could not stay in the house at Dube.
 The same evening, the authorities told Regina Brooks that she could not stay in the Police Barracks.
 Her attorney, Mr. H. S. Bloom, found other accommodation for her and she is staying there now with Tandi.
 Kumalo is staying with his family in the Police Barracks.
 Here are some details of the Kumalo family:
 Richard and Rosaline Kumalo have been married for seven years.
 He has been in the police years.
 Both grew up at Vrede in the Orange Free State.
 Mrs. Rosaline Kumalo is 24 years old.
 They have one child, a boy, Muziwakhe Daniel, aged three years.

Regina Elizabeth Brooks, aged 22 years. She is standing trial with Police Sergeant Richard Kumalo under the Immorality Act. Her attorney is Mr. H. S. Bloom. He told the court he would lead evidence that she had "gone native."

RENT TEST CASES

MR. P. Q. VUNDLA IS TO FIGHT A TEST CASE AGAINST THE HIGHER RENTS.
 HE WAS CHOSEN BY THE COMMITTEE WHICH IS CO-ORDINATING THE PROTEST IN THE RAND TOWNSHIPS.
 Mr. Vundla has filed suit against Dr. Verwoerd and others.
 Mr. Vundla claims that the Johannesburg City Council should have consulted the Advisory Boards, but failed to do so.
 Mr. Vundla and other board members have not paid the higher rent.
 They paid the old rents and were given receipts.
 We wonder what will happen at the next advisory board elections.
 Nobody is allowed to stand for election unless he is up to date with his rent.
 Mr. Vundla is a leading and popular Congressman.
 The Orlando Tenants Association is also going to fight a test case.
 Mr. G. G. Xorile has filed the petition.
 This association will argue that Dr. Verwoerd has no power to increase the rents.
 The case has been set down for the 18th of November.
 A committee at Eastern Native Township is also to go to the courts.

JERRY MOLOI'S SECONDS THROW IN THE TOWEL

ELIJAH MOKONE NEARLY KNOCKED OUT JERRY MOLOI IN THE FIRST ROUND OF THEIR TEN ROUND SCHEDULED TITLE FIGHT FOR THE S.A. FEATHER-WEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP HELD BY MOKONE, IN DURBAN LAST SATURDAY NIGHT.
 CHALLENGER JERRY MOLOI WAS SAVED BY THE GONG IN THE FIRST ROUND. MOKONE INFLECTED AN EARLY CUT ON MOLOI'S LEFT EYE.
 As the gong went for the second round, Mokone dashed at his man like a tiger. The Mokone onslaught was too much for the challenger.
 The cut on the eye was bleeding profusely when Jerry Moloi's seconds threw in the towel. The fight was hardly two minutes old in this round.
 Moloi was sent down for a count of eight early in the fight but managed to get up in time.
 The City Hall was packed to capacity.
 At the beginning of the fight, Moloi was the favourite. At the weigh-in, the challenger was 11 lb. heavier than the champion.
 But when the fight ended with Mokone retaining the title via the short route, he gained many supporters for himself in Durban.
 Mokone was defending his title for the first time since he won it from the former holder, Alby Tissong, who was fresh from an overseas tour. This fight was in Cape Town.
 Tissong has since gone back to England.
 Mokone fights Enoch Nhlapp in Durban next month on another Seaman Chetty promotion. After that he is expected to leave for England. He is S.A. dual champion, he also holds the lightweight championship.
 Another dramatic victory of the night was the fight between the great mite, Don Mkiye and Marcus Ndlovu in the middleweight division. Mkiye won on a second round knockout. The fight was scheduled for four rounds.

Magistrate acquits Newclare women

A NUMBER OF NEWCLARE WOMEN WERE ARRESTED LAST WEEK.
 THEY WERE REQUIRED TO JUSTIFY THEIR PRESENCE IN NEWCLARE SOUTH.
 THIS TIME THEIR MENFOLK ENGAGED A LAWYER.
 ABOUT 27 WOMEN APPEARED BEFORE MR. G. J. HOPMEYR AT NEWLANDS.
 MANY OTHER WOMEN FLOCKED TO THE COURT TO HEAR THE RESULT OF THIS TEST CASE.
 The lawyer argued that there was no law under which the women could be charged with being in the area unlawfully.
 He said that they were all the wives or relatives of the men living there.
 He also said that many of them were married according to native custom.
 Such marriages were recognised in law.
 Magistrate Hofmeyr acquitted all the women.
 Now when the "kwela kwela" comes to Newclare south, women no longer scatter into hiding.

This is the son of Police Sergeant and Mrs. Kumalo. His name is Muziwakhe Daniel. He is three years old. Little Muzi loves tea and picture books.

This is Tandi, daughter of Regina Brooks. She is 17 months old. She doesn't want to eat anything except fruit. She speaks Zulu.

Short work with the mule

A mule was killed by a train at Kiptown on Thursday.
 A crowd of blanketed women gathered around with knives, axes and basins.
 Amid cheers, the owner announced that they could help themselves.
 There was a wild scramble as women fought for the meat.
 In a short time, there was not a scrap left.

Evaton bus fares to go up

Evaton bus fares are to go up soon.
 The Evaton People's Transport Council states that the buses will be boycotted when the fares go up.
 They expect action on December 1st.
 The monthly tickets will go up by 10s.
 Weekly tickets will be up 3s.
 A single journey will cost 6d. more.

BIG ROUND-UP OF TRAIN ROBBERS

A PASSENGER ON THE RANDFONTEIN TRAIN LAST WEEK HAD BEEN DRINKING.
 HE KEPT PATTING HIS POCKET TO SEE IF HIS MONEY WAS SAFE.
 Tsoisis spotted this.
 They gathered around him and grabbed him.
 They sang louder and louder to drown his shouts for help.
 Then the train pulled into Braamfontein station.
 A number of blanketed men heard the passenger shouting.
 They got into the train and beat up the tsoisis with sticks.
 Meanwhile the passengers scattered on to the platform.
 They thought these were "Russians."
 But the "Russians" pulled out handcuffs and dragged all the tsoisis off to the railway police.
 Smiling passengers got back into the train.
 They were happy at this proof that the railways are determined to clean up the train robbers.

 "Dankie baas," said Daniel as he stepped down.

HE GOT THE NEEDLE

Daniel had an excellent excuse for the Newlands Magistrate last week.
 "I was drunk," he admitted.
 "But it wasn't beer. It was an injection."
 The Prosecutor: "show us your papers from the hospital."
 Daniel showed them.
 The Magistrate discharged him.
 "Dankie baas," said Daniel as he stepped down.

"WE DON'T WANT ITALIANS"

The bus boycott in Kiptown is now in its second week.
 A big crowd met on the field outside the bioscope on Sunday afternoon.
 They decided to continue the boycott.
 There were many shouts of: "Expel the bus company from Kiptown."
 "We don't want Italians here any more."
 The boycott committee were instructed to approach other bus companies.
 A committee member complained that he had been threatened with a gun.
 "This is not going to frighten us," said one speaker.
 One proposal put forward from the crowd was that the residents of Kiptown should form their own bus company.
 Many people wanted the bus company to be expelled from the township altogether.

"WE DRANK CHILD'S BLOOD" SAYS PRETORIA "MOLOI"

The whole neighbourhood went wild with excitement over a "witch" in Lady Selborne last week.
 Two men came home at midnight. They found a woman standing motionless at the doorway of Mr. Lucas Speng's room at No. 909 North Street.
 She was stark naked.
 The men woke the other tenants in the yard.
 Soon the whole place was buzzing with excited voices.
 The woman was in some sort of spell.
 She did not move or speak.
 "O tsoaregile!" the people shouted. A big crowd collected.
 As it was slightly dark on the verandah, the people struck matches.
 Mr. Speng and others knew her.
 Mr. Lelaka took his car and rushed to call the police. They took her away.
 But that was not enough.
 After a sleepless night, Mr. Joel Ngwenya telephoned the Bantu World.
 He stays at No. 1040 Klip Street.
 Two hours after the North Street incident, one of Mr. Ngwenya's tenants got the shock of his life.
 He was Mr. Boniface Soko. Going outside, he saw the strange, naked figure of a woman.
 Perspiring and trembling with fear, he screamed and shouted for Mr. Ngwenya.
 Soon everybody in the yard was out to see the naked woman.
 This was a talkative "witch."
 Turning unsteadily to face all directions and fidgeting all the time, she told strange stories.
 "We made a mistake when we drank the blood of that baby," she said.
 She turned to face the east, and said, "we made a mistake when we made the bones wet."
 She turned to face the west.
 "We should not keep those children locked up in the room any longer," she said.
 "I came here with my aunt, but now she has deserted me," she said turning to the north.
 "I came to fetch you," she told one of the Ngwenya brothers. "What are you waiting for? Do you want us to remain here until sunrise?"
 Soon a pick-up van arrived. They took her away.

INTER-RACIAL FELLOWSHIP

THE INTER-RACIAL FELLOWSHIP WHOSE FIRST MEETING WE REPORTED IN OUR LAST ISSUE IS TOO GOOD A THING TO BE ALLOWED TO GO WITHOUT A COMMENT FROM US. MORE INFORMATION ON IT HAS REACHED US. WE SHARE IT WITH YOU. THE FELLOWSHIP IS NO NEW ORGANISATION AS WE UNDERSTAND IT. ITS INITIATOR, THE REV. BASIL HOLT, M.A., B.D., OF LINDEN CHRISTIAN CHURCH, WHO AT ONE TIME SERVED THE INSTITUTE OF RACE RELATIONS AS FIELD OFFICER, HAS THE FOLLOWING TO SAY ABOUT IT.

The Inter-Racial Fellowship has no rigid organisation, no creaking committees, no dues. It is intended to be a free and easy fellowship of people across the boundaries that divide us, to build bridges of friendship, and to promote moderate and constructive discussion of our problems from divergent viewpoints, and so help, if possible, to bring unity out of diversity.

The topic for discussion at the first meeting may well be the topic for all meetings. The topic was, "In view of the diverse elements of our multi-racial society, what is necessary to be done to achieve national unity and solidarity in South Africa?" We cannot have too many methods of building bridges "across the boundaries that divide us." Let such fellowships not be confined to Linden. Let them spread to East London, Lindley and other centres. Let them be held not only in English-speaking but in Afrikaans-speaking as well as African churches.

It is most satisfying to think a month from today the great Dutch Reformed Church will be having a conference of church leaders of all denominations, and all racial groups at the University of the Witwatersrand. Contrary to reports, there is expected about an equal number of European and Non-European delegates. A prominent African minister will probably be the reader of the chief paper. Let us all, both black and white, continue "to build bridges of friendship."

FARM AND GARDEN

The following agricultural notes have been written by Mr. E. G. Sihlele, of Thaba Nchu. He is an agricultural expert who has done meritorious work in the Union as well as Bechuanaland Protectorate.

Despite the severe drought in the Free State, each farmer needs to keep his implements, seeds, etc., in readiness for the coming of rain.

Time for the planting of each seed must be observed only to avoid the frost period.

When rain falls, say, in November, plant your seed soon after ploughing. All progressive farmers realise that the soil must be fed by manuring or fertilisation if they hope to get the best out of it. Manuring produces a good crop.

—COUNTRYMAN.

LISTEN TO ME!

Whether it is or not to you, to me it is terribly distressing to live in the shadow of the so-called "Native Problem". South Africa is one of the finest parts of the whole earth. It has made tremendous progress. The Africans here have, in spite of whatever barriers may be in our way, made breath taking progress.

I have been to many parts of the continent of Africa. There are a couple of other parts it is my wish and prayer to visit for my own sake, but even more for yours.

I have met Africans from all parts of our continent. Yet I still maintain that the Union Africans are head and shoulders above most of our fellow-Africans.

I know there is "so little done, so much to do". I wish to see us, white, black, brown, coloured, do it. The shadow of the problem of the relations of these racial groups is depressing.

There are those who see only one way of solving this problem, namely to do all that will save THEM from extinction. This selfish way is a remedy that can very well be as bad as, if not worse than, the disease it is intended to cure. The only hopeful and happy solution lies along the path of recognition that ours has come to be a permanently multi-racial community whose different sections must not be regarded as enemies but brothers and sisters, with a common destiny and a common patriotism.

Some of us may well be pessimists. I hate to be one of these lookers on the dark and hopeless side of things. We have men and women in this country in all the racial groups with big minds and big hearts, if only we could substitute love for the growing bitterness among us, and courage for the fear which dominates so many of us. "Perfect love casteth out fear", says the Book of Books.

Are South Africa's racial, political and economic problems capable of solution? Jan Toekoms in his well-written "When Malan Goes" answers this question with an unwavering yes. I don't know who Jan Toekoms is. All I know is that his name means "John Future", in the Queen's language. I read his book with intense interest, and recommend everyone who has not yet read it to do so at once. The book is an analysis of what the writer calls the "progressive programme".

I am not telling you I am a "Jan Toekomsite". I am telling you to read the book. It deals with every aspect of our depressing "problem". It puts forward a case for the establishment of "a democratic republic", it advocates the maintenance of European supremacy for the next hundred years, and the maintenance of social apartheid.

The book advocates the abolition of the economic colour bar, and pleads for the establishment of freehold suburbs for Non-Europeans. It makes a strong point for the representation of Non-Europeans in local and central government, better pay and conditions for policemen, and the simplification of the pass laws with a view to their eventual abolition.

All I have done has been to indicate what is contained in "When Malan Goes". No one should start passing judgment on the book before going through it, and no one should start passing judgment on me simply because I have had the common sense to read the book, and the courage to draw your attention to it.

You and I may disagree with some points of the so-called "progressive programme", but that need not justify our being disagreeable. Anyone who helps by his words, thoughts, and deeds to remove the shadow of our problem is to be regarded as a valuable South African, regardless of the shade of pigment Providence has been pleased to provide his skin with. — J. M. NHLAPO.

LESSON I LEARNED AT EVANSTON

Rev. Betram J. Mofoi
Now we come to the lessons I learned at Evanston. But first I must say it was surprising to note that, what I term, "the big speakers" at the Assembly were nearly all Non-Europeans.

For example, we heard the Rev. D. T. Niles, Ceylon, who gave a moving address on Evangelism.

Another "big speaker" was Mr. M. M. Thomas, a representative from the South India Church, who spoke on "Social reform in India".

Then came the Rev. Peter Dagadu, African secretary, Christian Council of the Gold Coast. He is a minister of the Methodist Church in the Gold Coast. He spoke on "Africa asks question of the western world."

We also heard Dr. Benjamin Mays, a negro, and President of Morehouse College, Atlanta. He is a member of the National Baptist Convention Inc. U.S.A. His speech was entitled "The Church amidst ethnic and racial tensions."

Doctor T. Kagawa of Setagaya-Tokyo, Japan, pastor and evangelist, and a member of the Church of Christ in Japan, he spoke on "Social reform in Japan."

Doctor R. B. Manikam of India spoke on social revolution in East Asia.

Lessons I learned at Evanston were:

1. Sin: Sin corrupts everybody, even the best. Therefore all nations, all colours and races in the world, all churches, denominations, and Christian groups, all stand at the foot of the judgment of God.

2. "In Christ": When one is "in Christ" there is hope. There is hope about racial, economic and international problems—"Christ the Hope of the World."

At Evanston we saw clearly the difficulties of these problems and even of the unity of the Church of Christ. But it is when we see these difficulties that we are enabled to solve them. There is a definite need to keep the lines of communication open between the various denominations so that we can meet and talk to one another. There is a further problem between the east and west countries in world international affairs.

4. The Church: The Church cannot be identified with any political or social system whatever; for all stand under the judgment of God.

5. The Bible: There was a return to the clear teaching of the Bible and its correct interpretation. The eastern speakers reminded us of this in the person of Bishop J. Peter of Hungary and Dr. J. Hromadka of Czechoslovakia.

Racial discrimination cannot be based on Scripture, the Assembly deduced.

Emphasis was also laid on the fact that the Holy spirit is guiding the Church in what to do.

In the next 10 years theologians will spend time on the Doctrine of Christ in relation to His whole Church and on the Holy Spirit. Christ is the Hope of the world. We have not found the key yet, but we are looking in the right direction.

There are also some important non-theological factors involved, such as social factors, education, customs, politics, house building and economics. These things are not theological or religious but are important in the life of the Church of Christ, and are common factors of unity.

We realised the immense missionary task of the Church to set Christ's insights into international affairs, government policies, industrial relations and daily work.

THE RISING COSTS

TWO MONTHS AGO, THE RAIL RATES WENT UP. THIS RISE AFFECTED ALL THE COMMODITIES THAT COME TO US BY RAIL. THE RAIL RATES WENT UP ALSO LAST YEAR. IT WOULD NOT BE SURPRISING IF NEXT YEAR HISTORY REPEATED ITSELF.

The cost of living has been rising for many years. Some of us remember clearly when a pound could buy much more than it does today. We know countries where the cost of living and wages are a great deal higher than in our country. Even in those countries the cost of living has not ceased to spiral.

There are not very many things that we can cut from our budget in order to balance it with our income, which finds it difficult to keep pace with the rocketing cost of living. We must have shelter, hence the houses continue to be built even though the price of materials and labour has taken many strides forward. We need clothing, even though the young of today can hardly believe those who tell them what a suit of clothes cost a generation ago. We must eat to live, not withstanding the high prices for things that once cost practically a song.

To a literate person whose education is of the right type it is unthinkable to do without reading. Books, newspapers, and magazines, cost today more than they did before. Those who need shelter, clothing, food, reading material etc. just find themselves compelled to pay higher prices. Those who supply these necessary things feel they must continue to supply them or just go out of business.

To those who only read newspapers, the cost of producing them is probably a sealed book. The paper or magazine which you buy for threepence costs more to produce than you pay for it. The producers are so convinced of the value of the paper to readers that they often bear heavy losses to preserve and supply that value. The readers are also convinced of that value so that they do not allow increased prices to rob them of their favourite journal.

The costs have risen, they are rising, and will no doubt rise even next year. Let us hold ourselves in readiness for the new things the new year is certain to bring.

OVER TO YOU

There are still some of our readers who think that our valuable national paper "The Bantu World" should base its news only on political matters and ignore the bad things discovered at certain places. For instance, the dangerous slaughtering weapons published in the issue of the 23rd Oct. need to be discussed and put to a final stop, for they help to stop the progress of the African in all freedom-activities.

Furthermore, the world has to know that cases of murder which appear every week, are a warning to those who still intend to murder. I wish the Bantu World every success in carrying on the good work of informing and educating its readers, on what it has discovered or heard.—George W. Musi.

The causes of juvenile delinquency are lack of good parental guidance, idleness, and mingling with bad friends who corrupt children from good homes. The remedies are the restriction of nocturnal movements by the child, and refraining from sparing the rod and spoiling the child. Let children be given something to do after school. It may be work or sport. Let the child keep out of bad company and associate with good friends.—"Layman."

I have been at meetings of people who ought to know better. When it came to singing our national anthem, there were those who were engaged in grooming, with cigarettes in their mouths and hats on their heads. Those who tried to behave better soon stopped singing, and turned towards the smokers and hat-wearers, and laughed at them.

How about prescribing the national anthems for our music competitions? If this were done, our people might learn to sing these anthems properly.—E. O. Mango, Sabie.

I appeal to all individuals and to medical institutions to set aside prejudices and fears, and use African medicine or herbs.

Indian herbs are successfully used with modern medicine by American doctors at such places as the Massachusetts Memorial Hospital, and by Indian medical practitioners at Jammagar.

In South Africa there are Europeans who are publicly running African herb stores.—David Joe, Port Elizabeth.

I wish to thank the police of Newlands, Johannesburg, for helping to bring peace to war-torn Newclare.

The raid for marriage certificates is a good thing. I wish it was done in all locations. There are far too many girls and women who think it is "old-fashioned" for them to be bound to one husband. They should pick up and drop husbands whenever they wish. From this no peace can come. May God bless those who labour to stamp out evils that make peace impossible.—(Rev.) B. Alexander Kaselela, Dui-velskloof.

Almost every week, I have read of tremendous criminal cases in the Bantu World. These cases expose the iniquity of the African people. We have forgotten that God created people to love one another, and not to hate one another as they seem to do today. It is all very well to discuss things in the paper. Why is it that people do not discuss crime among themselves? Crime is becoming worse among us, yet we are fighting for freedom. Freedom will not be granted us easily, if we do not first fight and eliminate crime among Africans.

STRANGE RUMOURS OF NATAL'S MAD WITCHDOCTOR

STRANGE STORIES ARE BEING TOLD OF NATAL'S MAD WITCH-DOCTOR. THE PEOPLE OF NATAL BELIEVE THAT THE MAD AXE-KILLER HAS 'MAGIC POWERS'. THEY SAY THAT HE IS A "WIZARD" WHO CHANGES SHAPE WHEN HE IS IN DANGER OF CAPTURE.

There is one story that the police cornered him in a hut recently. It arched its back and spat at them.

The killer is also said to have changed into a big green apple and a bottle of milk at various times. Another fantastic story is that he was trapped in thick bush at Balgowen recently. But he used his "magic" powers to cause a thick mist to come up.

Then he escaped in the mist. The police now have a definite description of this mass murderer. He is tall. He always wears an overcoat, even on the hottest day. He has a scar from his hair to between the eyebrows. Normally he carries a small silver case.

Three men she said she could remember were arrested. They were Alban Thumbran, Joseph Johnson and Freddie Loots.

All three were acquitted at the Criminal Sessions. The woman admitted having left the hall with some young men to have "a little drink."

Child has double escape. An 18 months old child had a double escape from death in Durban recently. She fell off the back of a lorry.

Then she was struck by an oncoming motor-car. She was taken to hospital, where no injury could be found.

The child was Matinta Mtshali of Umlazi.

DEAF AND DUMB BOXER IN COURT. Neighbours missed a 73-year-old woman, "Ounooi," last week. They noticed that the lock had been forced on her door at 21 Bertha Street, Sophiatown.

They found her body on the floor, covered with a blanket. It had been terribly mutilated, possibly by a sex maniac. Last week a deaf-and-dumb boxer appeared in the Newlands court.

He was 22-year-old "Manook." He was remanded in custody. The body was discovered by Pauline Tero, who lives in the same yard.

Krugersdorp's farewell to a good friend

Ex-Councillor and Mrs. E. O. Holcroft were presented with an illuminated address by the Krugersdorp and Luipaardsvlei African Sports organisations and Girls Clubs at a farewell meeting on Saturday. Mr. Holcroft who leaves Krugersdorp for Port Shepstone on retirement, was chairman of the Non-European Sports Committee, while his wife was like a mother to members of the Girls Clubs.

Among several speakers were Miss Wendy Mphahlele, Messrs A. Lerutle, and Mr. C. Phatudi of the Native Education Department. All paid high tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Holcroft.

Progress made in sport during the past two years has been largely due to his untiring efforts.

A school choir under Mr. S. K. Matseke bade Mr. and Mrs. Holcroft "Hamba Kahle."

Judge says man behaved like an animal

A shocking case of rape came before the Judge-President in Pretoria last week. A 29-year-old man was found guilty of a criminal assault on a girl of 11 years.

A doctor's report said that the child was in a terrible condition after the assault. She could not walk for several weeks.

There were signs that she had contracted a disease. The man was Ephraim Kapani of Skeerpoort.

Mr. Justice Maritz said that Kapani had behaved like an animal.

He sentenced Kapani to three years and seven strokes. In another case, a youth of 17 was found guilty of criminal assault on a girl of 7 at Atteridgeville.

He was remanded and sentenced to 12 strokes with the cane. His name may not be given because he is under 19.

Three men acquitted

Charlotte Coverdale of Cape Location lost her case at the Criminal Sessions in Pretoria last week.

This pretty young coloured woman claimed that she had been criminally assaulted on April 6.

In laying a charge, she had said that she was dragged out of a dance-hall at Marabastad by a number of young coloured men.

Three men she said she could remember were arrested. They were Alban Thumbran, Joseph Johnson and Freddie Loots.

All three were acquitted at the Criminal Sessions. The woman admitted having left the hall with some young men to have "a little drink."

A big task lies ahead: the biennial tournament of the South African Bantu Rugby Board will be held in Johannesburg next season, commented Mr. Ben-Mazwi after the elections. I also call upon the Transvaal sportsmen and the general public to make the forthcoming Rugby event an unprecedented success" said Mr. Mazwi.

Mkize wants return bout

NO CLAUSE WAS INCLUDED ABOUT A RETURN TITLE. FIGHT SHOULD WINDY MKIZE LOSE HIS T.V.L. HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP TO ELLIOT ARNOLD.
Mkize found Elliot Arnold too strong for him and an awkward fighter. However Mkize feels he is the better boxer. Elliot Arnold spoiled the fight with being warned frequently. For this reason Windy Mkize puts up a claim for a return match in Johannesburg.
Mkize is a strong challenger for the S.A. middleweight title won by Joe Flash in Cape Town last Friday. He finds no difficulty in making weight. The S.A. light-heavyweight championship is still vacant. Joe Maseko having retired. Leading contenders are Elliot Arnold, Windy Mkize, Errom Ngcobo and Julius Caesar.

FUTURE CHAMPS ON BIG BILL

IT'S NO EXAGGERATION TO SUGGEST THAT MR. S. MUTSHEKWANE'S NEXT BILL IS COMPOSED OF OUR FUTURE CHAMPIONS. THE DATE IS NOVEMBER 27TH AT THE JOHANNESBURG B.M.S.C., WRITES A. X.
I take them in this order. Benoni's fighting schoolmaster Ronnie Makhene meets Peter Moleledi, the Sophiatown bantam southpaw. These boys have skyrocketed in this division and I can assure Slumber David that he's coming back for big trouble. Our discovery boxer, Young Jake Ntseke, will have his third pro fight in the light-weight class. His opponent is Sam Maseko, Charles Louw's conqueror, an Maseko stop Ntseke's streak of victories? My guess is No.
Another sensation of the Mutshekwan's bill is the appearance of the second fighting social student after the great William Arthur Mbata (Baby Batter). He's Ramsy Ramushu, Manager Russa Bud Mbelle is busy grooming his new hope. He's George Mawasha in the middleweight division. Ramushu is under Mike Twala.
Sailor Mlambo starts a new claim on the feather crown when he fights Kid Bogart.
Middles: Ace Chocolate vs Desmond Gosa over four rounds.
Welters: Ray Mkonza vs Simon Mbata (Young Batter) over six rounds.
Lights: Ishmael Mhlungu vs Blue Mountain Simon Vilakazi under Jolting Joe Maseko.
It's a thorough boxing feast for the fans. My forecast will follow.

I CAN AFFORD THIS FULLY-ENAMELLED STOVE

THAT'S what housewives are saying about the sparkling new GLENWOOD de LUXE — the fully-enamelled stove which costs so little more than an ordinary black stove. Though the price is small the GLENWOOD has big features which one would expect only in expensive stoves.

- The oven door has an easy-to-read, accurate heat indicator.
- The optional hot water reservoir holds more than three gallons, which means you'll always have plenty of steaming hot water on tap. Finished in an exciting shade of Highland Green enamel, it's by far the most economical wood-and-coal stove on sale. See your dealer today or write to P.O. Box 4, Jacobs Natal, for the GLENWOOD leaflet.
- The fire and ash cover door is built in one piece and the fire bars are self-clearing for easy cleaning.

The prizes of half-a-crown each are on the way to the lucky winners.

Now for this week's puzzle. You have two questions to answer.

First: What is this wellknown building in Johannesburg?
Second: What is the correct name for the round construction at the top of this building?

I am offering four prizes of five shillings to the lucky winners.

Send your answers to Picture Puzzle, P.O. Box 6663, Johannesburg.—MALEPA.

What's in your stars?

Aquarius—Jan. 21-Feb. 19: Things will be moderately slow, speeding up a little towards the end of the week. For some this will be a time of great solemnity. You will have the opportunity of doing a kindness to somebody unimportant. Don't neglect it. In time to come it will prove to be important.

Pisces—Feb. 20-Mar. 20: Religious matters will be important. Some will listen to a speech, others will be the speech-makers. Dress will be important this week. A kindly influence is at work on your behalf. Do not be provoked to anger. And pacify others and keep peace in your heart.

Aries—Mar. 21-April 20: Help is coming to those in trouble and angry passions will be cooled. Be careful of someone who speaks smoothly but has deceit in the heart. Things will go better your job—there might even be a little promotion.

Taurus—April 21-May 22: Patch up your quarrels, especially love troubles. Think it over—perhaps the other person is not altogether in the wrong. Some of you will go to a show and greet and dawn with music. Business and legal matters will claim your attention. Young ones, somebody attractive is coming into your life. He or she will have more than good looks.

Gemini—May 23-June 21: Those who are in trouble will find somebody to stand by them. Women and little ones, this week will be gentle with you. For some, there will be a little extra cash. There will be singing and dancing and a nice time. Take care that there is no rough stuff to spoil it.

Cancer—June 22-July 22: You will have nice times this week. Lots of music and fun and admiration. Lucky colour: green. Girls, there is a good-mannered person in your stars. But there is also someone just the opposite, and you should avoid him. Young men—you will meet somebody you will admire very much.

Leo—July 23-Aug. 22: What a lovely time is in store for you! You will be stepping out, and somewhere fashionable too. But watch out for somebody who will try to deceive you. Chaps—a handsome lady will come into your lives. But she also brings danger!

Virgo—Aug. 23-Sep. 22: You will visit a show. Young ones will settle down and start going out steadily with each other. This week for all will be smooth and steady. Church affairs are prominent. You will hear of a birth. Lucky number: 2. Somebody needs your help remember that he gives twice who gives quickly. Red is your fortunate colour.

Libra—Sep. 23-Oct. 22: Some of you will have to go away from home for a spell. Life for all of you will be brisk and pleasant this week although a bit irregular and unusual. Young lovers—keep your heads and think well of the future. If a troublesome person comes your way, don't worry. He is mostly a sham.

Scorpio—Oct. 23-Nov. 21: Now, now. No quarrels and fights please. Don't spoil the pleasant surprise that will come your way this week. Community affairs engage your attention, but don't let excitement guide your decisions. Girls, wear a bracelet for luck. Men, you can wear a wrist guard if you like, but only for this week. Some of you are in for a small piece of luck—and it will be in cash.

Sagittarius—Nov. 22-Dec. 22: Keep away from places with a bad reputation. This is a week for the family to get together. Brown is your fortunate colour. Steer well clear of guns and anybody with guns. Lads—a mystery girl comes into your lives. Lots of fun this week, but keep away from those who get out of hand when they are having a good time.

AROUND
and about

Mr. Solomon P. Moshette of Kliptown tells us that he is over 100 years old. And he is still as straight up as a young chap. Here you see him with two of his little descendants, Solomon and Joe. When he was a child, he says, animals still roamed freely in Kunwana in the Transvaal and there were very few Europeans. As a young man, he was a jockey and rode in hrset—rave in Rhodesia.

Miss Betty Mzozoyana of Cape Town is now taking music lessons at No. 1 Polly Street, Johannesburg, under Mr. Jacob Moeketsi.

Mr. B. Mudau, Bantu Men's Social Centre secretary gave the report of the year's activities on Founder's Day. Guest speaker was the Bishop of Johannesburg Rt. Rev. Ambrose Reeves.

Little William was delighted when the circus came to Kliptown last week. Most of all he liked this young elephant, which begged for scraps all the time. William wandered all down the railway platform watching the circus animals being unloaded: lions, ponies, elephants, camels, monkeys. There was a big monkey—a chimpanzee—which played around with a little girl and made everybody laugh.

SCHOOLS ARE NOW BUSY STAGING CLOSING SHOWS. STAGE KING, MR. WILFRED SENTSO, FORMER PRINCIPAL OF THE ORLANDO MOOKI MEMORIAL SCHOOL GIVES A SACRED CONCERT AT THE ORLANDO COMMUNAL HALL ON SUNDAY NOVEMBER 14TH AT 2.30 P.M.

MUSIC WILL BE GIVEN BY THE ORLANDO DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH CHOIR CONDUCTED BY WILFRED SENTSO WHO IS ALSO THE CHOIR'S OFFICIAL ACCOMPANIST.

THE ORGANISERS OF THIS CONCERT ARE MRS. A. KUBAYI, MR. A. POWER AND MRS. A. CHAKANE WHO HAVE FIXED LOW ADMISSION RATES FOR PARENTS AND CHILDREN.

This was the beginning of one of Tumahole's Gay Gaieties popular action numbers which thrilled a big audience at Pimville. The occasion was the Annual Mothers Day organised by a local Clinic.

The famous Albert Street Methodist School Choir is sponsoring a gala annual closing concert at the Bantu Men's Social Centre, Johannesburg on Saturday, December 11. The new choir conductor is Mr. Abe Moabi. The school's principal is Mr. Theo T. Marawu. Time is 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

The Roodepoort Swedish Mission school will hold its last concert of the year at the Fieldhouse Hall on Saturday December 4. Another afternoon entertainment. The choir will be under Mr. Larry Molefe's baton.

A farewell function in honour of Mr. A. D. Motuba is being organised at Krugersdorp.

"Things are upside down," reads a letter from Thomas R. O. Mokgeledi. He is the leader of the Johannesburg Carnivorous Brothers. What a music name!

Tommy and his boys want to leave next month on a tour to the north. They'll start at Francistown on December 28. Two days later they'll appear at the Stanley Centre.

Accompanying them on their tour will be The Brown Kalanga Wizards. In Bulawayo they'll join the African Actors dance troupe and The Los Angeles Orchestras all of Bulawayo. Mokgeledi is a member of Southern African Artists Union.

The South West Africa tour of the Manhattan Brothers is held up by permits to enter that country. They should have arrived in Windhoek on November 1. Their leader, Dambuza Mdledle is still busy trying to fix their papers.

A police official dealing with this matter told me that everything will be all ready inside three weeks. That means the Mannhattans' S.W.A. tour will definitely start by the end of this month.

The dates for the next S.A. Bantu National Eisteddfod are April 8 to 10 next year. The eisteddfod's secretary has already issued the syllabus. Entries may be sent to the General Secretary, S.A. Bantu National Eisteddfod, P.O. Box 6716, Johannesburg.

Rebem Oliomo of Sophiatown continues his comment about African jazz and records. He says:

"Supposing we simply copied discs from overseas, what would the originators think of us? I am sure they would not take us to head.

"A prominent musician like Ray Antony has produced a record that is common among African jazz collectors called 'Skokiaan.' It all happened down in Cleveland when a certain jockey was playing it. A group of bop lovers of America gathered outside and all inquired of it.

"Had we not produced a thing like 'Skokiaan,' where would Ray Antony heard such strange music? The outside world is now going to see what the African is worth.

"I can imagine Sarah Vaughan singing songs like 'Into Yam' by Dorothy Masuka and 'Nontsokolo' by the same lady. Would't you love listening to Bill Hollyday sing the 'Meva' song by Dolly 'Kitty' Rathebe. Sure you would man."

There's big news for music fans. Dorothy Masuka was in Bulawayo recently. She's now back in the Golden City. I met her the other day. She told me that she has become engaged in Bulawayo, but she would not divulge the lucky gentleman's name at this stage. She asked me to be contented with seeing the engagement ring.

You will all be interested to hear what Alick Nkhata is doing in Rhodesia. He's well-known down south. He used to be at a place called Msaho near Roodepoort.

Alick accompanied by Brown Samakai has been on tour in Rhodesia recording items for the Lunda-Luvale programmes. Mr. Nkhata is also running a quartet up there, the Lusaka Members' Choir which is playing a big part in the entertainment world. They are bringing listeners many new tunes and songs for the broadcast programme.

Mayibuye record review

It's quite a long time since I heard a voice like Martha Mdenge's. She reminded me of the great African singers Johannesburg has had in the past..... people like Florence Sibisi, Annah Leoate and Lily Molahloa.

Martha's voice is mezzo soprano with a touch of famous Sophie Tucker's voice. Her appeal and style are unique.

The band behind her is good, but like all modern accompanists, inclined to be loud, forcing Martha to accept its dictation.

Accompanists forget that they have to serve not lead and drown a singer.

Dali, Dali, wen' ungo wam is an excellent effort and it ought to carry Martha to the heights. Quality Record— TJ 20.

Quality— Intaba ka Ndoda— Engxangxa— Irene Moyake TJ. 16-b. A good record with Irene pleasing.

Quality — Dzokera — Emmva — Swedebe sondela — Temba's Jazz Band TJ 27-b fair jive Record.

Quality — Bomme — Lehae laka — Tinny Tots TJ 30-a. Record apt to be discordant.

Quality — Panti Komthi — Bongi come duze — Eddie's Flames — TJ 19-a. Record noisy but good.

Trutone — I get so lonely — Cara Mia — Jimmy Adams and his Swing Band — RA 182b — Good dance record.

Lo Six — Mbawula real good. Lo Six should do well with a little more emphasis on pronunciation.

Gallotone — Baby Ntsoare — Laku tshon' Ilanga GB. 2007 — Manhattan Brothers — A fine defence of reputation — record pleasing.

Gallotone — Beerhall — Blue Sky Jail — GB. 2013, King Force Siigees' Jazzy Forces — very good jive record. — Nimrod Makanya.

Junior BANTU WORLD

Dear Children,

Some of you are asking questions about religion.

That is a matter for your minister, of course.

But there is a side to religion which you should know more about.

It is the fact that the whole purpose of a classical, university education is to develop a religious approach.

The educated religious man has a definite way of doing things.

He tries to obey all laws, all rules and all decent customs and traditions, whether he believes in them or not.

He also tries to be fair in his dealings with other people, even at a loss to himself.

Sheila, please tell us about yourself. To what church do you belong? Are you a member of a Sunday School? How old are you? What class are you? Please remember us to your friends at the school. Tell them it's very near examination time and they should study hard, like the girl on our cover picture this week.

K. K. S. Erens Raditla, of the Kilnerton Practising School has written me an amusing letter. He says that he is a very lucky boy. The reason is that he was born in 1932. And why is that lucky? Well, this is the reason he gives. He was born on the same year that the Bantu World was first published. For membership cards and told him it is our duty to do a good turn when we can. As result he promised to encourage a brother to join the JBW club. I hope the brother will enrol.

"I was at the Rand on 25. 9. 54 but failed to pass your office. I was with a friend. We had gone to see the cup final between the Rangers F.C. and Marists F.C. Rangers won 1-0. We enjoyed the game. I like Pretoria clubs like the Methodist F.C. because they contribute to our standard of sport. The Methodists beat Lorenzo Marques 6-4 on Sunday 10. 10. 54.

"I suggest we meet again this year, How's that Malome?"

He cultivates in himself the habits of kindness.

There is a good reason for all this.

In the majority of us, there are vast creative forces.

But they only come to full flower in a mind which is balanced and happy and relaxed.

The "clevers" who are always scheming, never become great writers or singers or musicians or architects or lawyers and so on.

Letters: Mphare Pilane of the Kilnerton Practising School has sent me an interesting letter. It is written in ink but not with an ordinary ink pen. He tells me he has used a grass from an African broom which he claims are handy when pens are not available. Would members try this, too, and see if it works and let me know.

Sheila Phati, Kilnerton Practising School, Pretoria has written me. She asks me to give the following message to Miss Edith Dlamini: "I want the meaning of this song which I dreamt singing one Friday night:

Masibulele kuJesu,
Ngokuba wasifela;
Wasenzela izibele

Nngokusifela kwakhé;
Taru Bawo, yiba nofefe kuthi.

Well Sheila, fortunately for you Miss Edith Dlamini has replied and has given me this translation of the above hymn:

Let us thank Jesus
Because he died for us;
He did us a lot of kindness
By dying for us;
Forgive us Father, have mercy on us.
Thank you, Miss Edith Dlamini.

that he calls this paper his comrade. This member recommends each one of us to purchase a bible and then read a line or two each day.

Congratulations to these Members! Kenneth Lebethe of 34 Matjie Street, Atteridgeville has written me this interesting letter. Read it carefully. I am quoting it in full: "Malome I am pleased. Why, because I managed to raise a sixpence for the badge. Daniel Msimanga and I, are doing our final Junior Certificate. He will send his 6d. later. Last week Daniel came to school with a passbook he had picked up. In it was the sum of £2. 10. 0. in notes. We took this back to the owner who was pleased to have his property back. He offered us the 10/- note but we refused it. We showed him our

.... Pretoria poet ★

Alice is a student nurse at Pretoria Hospital. She was brought up at Clocelen in the Free State, where she attended the local school. Then her father took her away to live at Maseru, in Basutoland, where she was awarded a bursary to take her Junior Certificate at the Basutoland High School and another bursary which enabled her to study for Matric.

happy here. I like nursing very much, especially working with the children. Though it makes me sad too. One would like to do so much more for them. We have a lot of free time too. Our hours are not long, as some people think.

We only work 8 hours a day and have one whole day off a week and half of Sunday, or, if we are on night duty, two nights off in the week. And we have 30 days leave a year.

"What do you do in your free time?" I asked Alice.

"I write," she said shyly "poetry and stories. A book of my poems is to be published soon in Southern Sesuto and I am busy on a novel now."

I looked at the pretty girl. "I am sure you have a boyfriend?"

She smiled and the dimples showed in her cheeks. "Yes, I have a boyfriend. He works in the town. When we are off together, we walk in the gardens and he reads my poetry and helps me with it. He knows Southern Sesuto better than I do."

Alice told me a lot about the career of nursing.

The minimum educational requirement is a J.C. Certificate, which must include these subjects:

1. One official language, preferably in the Higher Grade.

2. Arithmetic, or Mathematics or Commercial Arithmetic.

3. A science subject e.g. Physics, Chemistry, Physiology and Hygiene, Biology.

4. Two other subjects, e.g. History, Geography, etc. Students find that an academic education is more helpful than a domestic education when it comes to following lectures and writing exams.

The minimum age is 17½ years. Applicants must be unmarried, in good health and of good character.

Training takes 3½ years, during which students attend 2-4 lectures a week. Towards the end of the year, students sit for the Preliminary Examination of the S.A. Nursing Council. In the second year they take an internal exam—one set by the hospital where they are training.

At the end of the third year, they sit for their Final Exam. A successful student is then a fully trained Staff Nurse, able to apply for a post at any hospital.

While students are training, they receive an allowance of £6. 10. 0 a month rising by £1 a year to £10. 10. 0. The only expenses a student has are a £4 registration fee, examination fees and text books. Uniform is provided as well as two pairs of shoes a year and students receive free medical attention and a 50 per cent rail concession once a year, to enable them to visit their families.

After a student has qualified as a Staff Nurse, she receives £195 a year (plus an initial cost of living £6 13. 4. a month) and she can work up to £255 a year, while a ward sister can earn up to £40 a month.—E. G.

"I passed my Matric in 1949 when I was 20," said Alice. "It was thanks to my two teachers at the High School, Mr. Taona and Mr. Khaketa, that I was able to come so far."

"It was my great wish then to go on to Fort Hare and take B.A. LL.B. I wanted to serve my people and I felt that I could do so best in that way. However, it was not possible. So I decided to become a nurse and serve my people this way instead."

"I came up to Pretoria in 1951 and applied for registration at the hospital. I was accepted immediately and have been here nearly three years."

"So you have nearly finished your training?" I asked.

"Yes, I have only my Final to write."

"Are you glad that you chose nursing as a profession?"

"Oh yes, I am very

All About Our Nurses

THE BARAGWANATH HOSPITAL SCHOOL OF NURSING PRESENTS PRIZES, CERTIFICATES, AND PROGRESS STRIPES TO STUDENT NURSES AT 2 P.M. ON THURSDAY THIS WEEK.

THE CEREMONY WILL BE HELD IN THE NURSING COLLEGE HALL.

MISS J. MCLARTY, FORMER MATRON OF THE HOSPITAL WILL BE THE GUEST SPEAKER.

The lack of sympathy of African nurses to their own people is a most unpleasant duty for me as an African to mention says John Thabo Chaka in a letter to Ausi. I have tried to avoid this exposure, but can no longer.

I want the nurses to understand that my intention is not to criticise or write badly about them, but to express the sincere and genuine ideas, feelings, regards and actual experiences of many Africans who have been in hospital.

Many people at various hospitals have told me the same story of harsh, unsympathetic and perhaps ungodly treatment they have received from African nurses, children of their race who perhaps because they are nurses, have become "too divine to be human."

If the nurses should tell me that it is ungrateful patients who say all this about them, I want to know if these many people, who constitute a larger section of the African race, could all be ungrateful!

I cannot understand why some of our African women join the nursing profession, when they fully know they have none of the qualities of the profession.

Incidentally, one of the qualities of a nurse is not pride. An African nurse is characterised by pride, which pride is to a large extent responsible for her negligence of duty, and her bad reputation.

Why join and want to spoil the good name and lower the dignity of so noble a profession, when you know you cannot comply with its demands?

Check yourselves first young women before you join this great, honoured profession. Try to find out beforehand if you really have the will to help the sick and you have the patience and sympathy to deal with them.

I seriously appeal to you African nurses to change your attitude towards your patients!

Nurses Olga Buthelezi, Patricia Beng, Joyce Motaung; Staff Nurses Sarah Khalipha, Lizzie Makgale; and Clerks Richard Lezane, Filding Mzondeki, Richmond Mabindisa all of the Boksburg-Benoni Hospital were among many guests who attended the wedding of Staff Nurse Angelina Molete and Mr. Teddy Ntsepe of Germiston.

Nurse Kathleen Makosholo of the Coronation Hospital is away on a month holiday. Miss Makosholo will spend most of the time in Cape Town.

—AUSI.

MALITABA'S POSTBAG

Kindly furnish us in the Bantu World, if possible, with the names of the Republics of the world.—“Puer Acer,” Witbank.

It would take too long to list all the republics. The United States, China, India, France, Russia, Indo-China and all the South American countries are among the bigger republics.

Kindly solve me this problem. I have used a certain toothpaste for the past four years. I no more want to use toothpaste now. Will this harm my teeth?—“Nice Time,” Kimberley.

The important thing is to brush your teeth. Toothpaste helps to keep teeth clean.

I am now 20. I need a pen-pal who'll keep me busy so that I do not feel lonely. How can I get a lover who is serious about marriage?—“C and Y,” Krugersdorp.

Some kind reader may volunteer to become your pen-pal and I will then forward you the address. Young people often meet companions at church, social and sporting activities.

I should like to know if the Lourenco Marques Radio Christmas Competition is open to anyone, irrespective of colour.—“Perquisites,” Andalusia.

Yes. Open to all.

Where did the people who measured the circumference of the earth put their barometers to find that the earth is 24,840 miles?—Lazarus Litau, Eastonville.

The circumference of the earth was calculated by very skilful mathematicians last century.

I attend a boarding school at Warmbaths. I am interested in music which I could take along with my studies at my school. How can I obtain a piano on which to learn piano-playing?—S. B., Warmbaths.

Pianos cost a great deal of money. Even second hand ones cost over £100. Have you no friend who might let you use his piano?

I want to marry a nurse who is a Christian. She must be from the Kempton Park headquarters of the Nurses Christian Fellowship. How can I meet one of these nurses?—M. K. M., Pilgrims Rest.

I do not think this organisation would help you out. Surely it would be better to make contact with nurses in your home area.

I left school last year when I was doing my Form II. I am unable to go on with my studies and want to work for a doctor. May I apply, or is my standard not suitable for this work?—“Puzzled Miss.”

Each doctor makes his own choice of those he wishes to employ. No special qualification is required, but usually a doctor would prefer a nurse.

Furnish me with the address of Mr. Jacob Moeketsi. He runs a piano-playing school. Also that of Mr. Michael Makhale, the Minister of the Apostolic Faith and Assemblies of God Church.—N. N.

Mr. J. Moeketsi's address is No. 1 Polly Street, Johannesburg. I am sorry I do not know Mr. Makhale's address. Your nearest Apostolic Church Minister would be able to help you.

Give me the number of editors of the Bantu World since 1932 mentioning the period of office of each one.—“Worried.”

Mr. R. V. Selope Thema, 1932—1952; Dr. J. M. Nhlapo, since 1953.

Kindly supply the name of a firm which offers wedding clothes on easy terms.—Isaac M. Cox, Bulawayo.

Roma Clothing Agency, 42b Diagonal Street, Johannesburg, hire out wedding attire. It is advisable to hire rather than buy.

I would like to obtain employment as a Native Affairs Department police constable. What should I do?—I. M. S., Welkom.

See your local Native Commissioner. He will give all particulars.

Please let me know if there is another way of charging a battery without the wind-charger? I want to go to Pretoria. Can I get a way via Mafeking.—J. Knighton, Cape Town.

1. You could get a motor and generator. 2. Yes. Take the Bulawayo train and get off at Mafeking. From Mafeking you will take the Johannesburg train, and get to Pretoria.

I want to get married to a girl of my age. Some people think I should look for someone younger. They tell me my present choice will get old before I do.—“Very Worried,” Accorhoek.

Marry for love. Provided you are both of the same age and have common interests, you should make a happy home together.

There is a new Hospital in Zeerust, Transvaal. Is it a Government registered hospital or not?—“Interested,” Newclare.

It is a Government Hospital and is registered with the Province.

I have been in love with a girl for the last eight years.

We have a 2-year and 8 month-old child. I have been supporting this child. Recently I decided upon settling with my lover. But when my parents approached her parents, they demanded £72 lobola. I consider this too much and have tendered £40. Because they insist on £72 I have decided to leave their daughter. I am worried by one thing—my child. What should I do?—L. T. Johannesburg.

I take it you are both of age. If so, take your girl friend to the Native Commissioner and explain the position. He will make arrangements for you.

Kindly help me with the address of an African painter. What stamp is required for the Gold Coast.—S. M. Malobe, Middelburg.

Mr Paul Ramagaga, 10443B Mzimhlophe, Orlando, Johannesburg. Ask your post office for the stamp required for a letter to the Gold Coast.

What is the duration of a marriage contracted by customary union? What proceedings are necessary to dissolve this kind of marriage?—“P. S. M.” Moroka.

As long as the parties live together. Call together the parents of both parties. They will determine how many cattle must be refunded, depending on the number of your children. For people living in an arbut area it is safe to deal with this matter before the Native Commissioner of your area.

I am a divorcee and have three children aged 10, 1 and 4 years respectively. Could you provide me with a Government Institution which may look after my children? I am willing to pay.—D. D., Johannesburg.

I do not know of any Institution which looks after children. Have you no relatives who would help. Above everything else, it is your solemn duty to see that your children are happy.

I want to be married according to civil rights. How soon after reporting to the Native Commissioner's office can this be done? What is the cost of the certificate.—“Ready for Marriage,” Modderfontein.

Banns have to be published for three weeks after notifying the Native Commissioner. You pay 3/6 only for the stamp. If you want a special marriage, which takes a shorter time you pay £5. 0. 0. plus the 3/6 for the stamp. No banns are published in the latter case.

What is the right age for love, the right woman for marriage? What should one converse about with one's girl-friend?—M. M. F., Bloemfontein.

Eighteen perhaps. The girl who has the same interests as yourself. Talk about things which appeal more to the girl; many a young man makes the serious mistake of talking about himself.

I am a probationer nurse. I have been in love with a boy for three years. To my surprise he has sent me an engagement ring. We have not discussed it before. Should I keep it or send it back to him?—“Worried,” Sterkspruit.

Explain to him that you may not wear his ring till you have completed your training. If he loves you he will be reasonable and wait.

DURBAN BOXERS PROVED SUPERIOR OVER JO'BURG MAI-MAI CLUB IN THE FIRST EVER INTER-CITY BOXING TOURNEY AT THE DURBAN BANTU SOCIAL CENTRE ON OCTOBER 23.

The first two bouts were crowd-pleasers. The crowd, from time to time, stood on their toes shouting and cheering the local boys who gave Phillip and Joe Nkosi of Jo'burg a thrashing.

The others failed to impress the fans except Pay Mkhwanazi of Durban, in the light-weight class who managed to show a number of flashes in his hands occasionally.

Springs bill

TORRY JOHNNY OLIPHANTS, NEW SPRINGS PROMOTER, IS BACK IN THE NEWS. HIS FIRST PROMOTION, POSTPONED RECENTLY, TAKES PLACE AT MCCOMBE ARENA, PAYNEVILLE, SPRINGS EARLY IN DECEMBER.

Mr. Oliphants wants his September 18 bill to stand unaltered. The main bout will be between Joe Flash Nyakale, Tvl. cruiser champion and Ariel Xaba, challenger. It will be a Transvaal middle title fight.

Meantime, Nyakale fights Julius Caesar in Cape Town on November 5th for the S.A. title vacated by Jolting Joe recently. When he meets Xaba he may be national champ. Should he gain these laurels, Nyakale is prepared to stake his title rightaway against the Evaton schoolboy, Xaba.

Arrangements are going on to enclose the McCombe arena.

November 27 Promotion

The Transvaal Association for Non-European Professional Boxing is presenting an all star bout tournament featuring definite future champions. The tournament takes place in Johannesburg on November 27.

Every one of the six star bouts will be packed with interest and plenty of real action. The youthful battlers have been hand-picked for the following reasons: youth, boxing brains, correct punching ability, fighting determination, self-confidence and, above all that rare boxing quality—the killer instinct.

Our boxing fans will not miss the regular big names in Non-European boxing. Everything they want to see in boxing will be there in plenty. The eleventh consecutive tournament.

Requests for admission tickets are already pouring for half price seats.

Rain, hail or shine, this first class bill will be held indoors and transport is already arranged for the homeward journey.

Golden Arrows Tennis Club

THE GOLDEN ARROWS L.T.C. WHICH WON THE BANTU SPORTS CLUB INTERCLUB B. DIVISION TOURNAMENT, WAS FORMED EARLY THIS YEAR BY MR. PETER SEABI, FORMERLY OF THE WOLVES L.T.C.

This infant club has every reason to be proud of its achievement.

Since their victory, the Golden Arrows have been greatly encouraged and, in their quest for further successes, they raided the Sweepers L.T.C. of Vreeniging whom they beat by 37 games recently.

I understand that they are now preparing themselves to go and dig the Fear-Nots L.T.C. out of the "Big Hole" in Kimberley during the Xmas holidays.—R.D.M.

Here are the members of the newly-formed Golden Arrows L.T.C. of Johannesburg. They won their first major local tournament in this year's interclub competition of the Bantu Sports Club. (See story on this page) The players are, from left to right, standing: L. Meswa, E. Latib, S. Thambisa and G. Brown. Sitting: P. Seabi captain, Miss D. Kumalo, J. Tsotetsi president and Miss M. Mthongana.

Transvaal open tennis parade

Miss Elizabeth Nolwane, the sturdy Transvaal women's singles champion is back to defend her titles after a year's absence from competitive tennis.

Solomon Itholeng, the thick-set ace stylist, and certainly the most improved of all players in the Transvaal Bantu Lawn Tennis Union this year, will meet Richard Mogoai in the open.

Martin (Hop Zoro) Molete, the smallest but hardest hitting of the Transvaal leading players, is a tailoring instructor at the V.T.C. Orlando, Johannesburg.

Richard Mogoai, the 28 year-old hard hitting Alexandra champion, is one of the most spectacular of African players in the country today. The standard of Richard's game seems to be going higher

Mrs. Minah Dhladhla of Simmer and Jack Germiston, who won the women's singles title of the Transvaal Federation championships recently, is going all out to win the Transvaal "open".

Tennis questions and answers

Try B B Lewis' Tablets

The remarkable treatment for Rheumatism, Backache, Bladder, Kidney and Liver complaints.

"KEEN TENNIS STUDENT" OF GERMISTON HAS SENT US THE FOLLOWING QUERY. ANSWERS ARE GIVEN BELOW:

Supposing in a tournament, my opponent and I had been changing courts at odd games, and my opponent happened to take a set at 6-3, should we change courts at 6-3, next, should we continue changing at odd games?

The "Rules Of Lawn Tennis" say: "The players shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of each set, and at end of each set, unless the total number of games in such set be even, in which case the change is not made until the end of the game of the next set.

How are players given byes in a championship chart?

In a championship tournament the draw is made in the following manner: When the number of competitors is not a power of two, i.e. 4, 8, 16, 32 etc., there shall be byes in the first round. The number of byes shall be equal to the difference between the number of competitors and the next higher power of two. The byes shall be divided in equal proportions at the top and bottom of the list, above and below the pairs; if uneven in number, there shall be one more bye at the bottom than at the top. Simply, this means that when there are eleven entries, there shall be five byes—two at the top and three at the bottom—and only three matches in the first round.

If a player fails to attend in a championship in a particular round due to injury or other logical excuses, is that player to be walked over, scratched out or postpone the match?

Is it traditional or constitutional to walk over a player in the final?

Decisions on such matters rest with the tournament committee.

Why is a junior and/or a 'B' division player not allowed to participate in the 'A' division as well, if the player wishes to?

When and how does a player become eligible for the provincial team. How does a player qualify to play in the 'A' division?

Why is there a 'B' division in our championships? And how did it come that such a division was introduced?

These questions fall by-laws and regulations of local associations which decide them each in its own way.
