25th June, 1968.

Dear Eulalie,

Thank you for your letter of June 19. And thank you for the good things you have done for Bob. Were you all right for money for the various items?

If any money is sent on to you from overseas I promise that you will know who the donor is. I can add the assurance that you need not worry about the respectability of any donors: both for Bob's sake and for my own protection, I am always at pains to ensure that the donors are above board.

The arrangement you suggest -- that money be sent direct by me when I am overseas to Mrs Sobukwe for her needs, and to you for Bob's personal needs, is fine. I am grateful to you for this arrangement.

I think you need not fear too much about having to raise any large amounts of money yourself. I am confident of being able to provide what is needed, even though I do tend to run short now and again.

Mrs Sobukwe will be visiting the Island in August. I shall attend to her train-fare, food on the Island and any other necessary expenses. I shall, of course, ask her to make a point of contacting you when she is there, and will try to let you have, in advance, her arrival date.

All good wishes,

Sincerely,
