PAM 19

Dear sir,

I am in receipt of your letter dated the 14/6/55: for which I thank you most highly.

Most unfortunately I as secretary to Mr. Matangi have not up to this date found conditions in our favour more especially of late, due to the conflict caused by one of our bodies called Sebokwe.

Such has caused such misunderstanding, but we are still able to fight our way.

We are entirely looking forward to the fight for our freedom.

I am cordially begging you to send one of your delegates to come over here, so that the members can realise that the ANC is in for progress off of Kion while.

Awaiting your reply promptly and promising assistance in the salvation of Afrikaner from tyranny at all times.

Yours      A. J. Lutjus
Sub Secretary
