

DIALE (This chief left the parent tribe of BAKGATLA, with a section, owing to the proposed killing of his wife, whose unborn child was alleged to have cried out in its mother's womb)

LATENG ("Cried in the womb", over whom DIALE left the Bakgatla. He was born in Sekukuniland but died as a child. About this time Diale's section abandoned the name of "Bakgatla" and took that of "Bapedi", also adopting the porcupine (noku) as a tribal emblem instead of the Bakgatla emblem of an ape (Kgabo)
