I write to remind you the point you raised in Kimberly, You said some-body ~~could follow you~~ from here in Shaba-cho could follow you after your arrival there at home - especially some-one like Goronyane, thinking that he is the only one the Barolong could understand well. If you see sir, how things are today or now - it seems if Goronyane could come there for you - it will be of great help to us. Please Sir, may you answer my letter (words) because the position of our people in England is financially bad very bad.

Enclosed letter is for your information, and kindly return it by first post.

With greetings
Your child
W. E. fenyang
