

relationship with Liz Floyd made his situation comparable with that of a married man. I am not quite sure about this.

4. Generally, the professor believes that we can work towards handling the evidence of Professor Plomp in such a way as to make him support our case.

DISCUSSION WITH DR WOLF

Dr Wolf's firm view is that we should not allow ourselves to become involved too much in the psychological detail. We should concentrate simply on the fact that this man was detained, that he was submitted to certain treatment and that he died as a result. His captors are, therefore, responsible for his death.

FURTHER WORK TO BE DONE ON THE PSYCHOLOGY

It seems that we should arrange to visit the Medical School library and to read the various articles referred to by Professor Plomp. We can then see which of those articles are likely to assist us. And we can arrange to get photocopies from the Medical School library.

W LANE

14 July 1982

Collection Number: AK2216

AGGETT, Dr Neil, Inquest, 1982

PUBLISHER:

Publisher:- Historical Papers Research Archive

Location:- Johannesburg

©2013

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of a collection deposited at the Historical Papers Research Archive at The University of the Witwatersrand.