HOW CAN MAN
DIE BETTER
Benjamin Pogrund
(Peter Halban, £14.95)

THE events of this book might read like a horror story, but this is not fiction. It is the story of one man's fight against the tyrannical regime of South Africa.

Robert Sobukwe led the non-violent protest against the pass laws in 1960 which was to become one of the turning points in South African history — The Sharpeville Massacre, when 69 were killed by police guns.

Benjamin Pogrund, a white journalist, relates the remarkable tale of Sobukwe's life, so much of which was spent in the bleak high security prison of Robben Island.
