To Dad

P.O. Box 1138,
JOHANNESBURG.

13th February, 1969.

It was so nice of you to write to me, and I was very pleased to hear from you.

I have written to friends of mine in England, the United States and Israel, and have asked them to arrange for penfriends for you. I hope that you will soon hear from some people of your age in these countries. Will you let me know if you hear from penfriends?

I have posted three parcels of books to you. I had to get them together in a hurry and I am not sure if they will be books that you will like. Will you write to me and tell me which books you liked, which were too difficult and which were too easy? Then I shall know what to send you. And you won't forget to give Milisawa these books also? And what about the twins? I know that their English is not too good so I am sure if I should try to send books to them. Will you let me know?

I am enclosing a postal order for 50c so that you can buy stamps. You must take the postal order to a post office and they will give you money for it with which you can buy stamps. If penfriends write to you, you should ask the post office for airletter cards. They cost 5c each, and are much cheaper to send overseas than ordinary letters. If you write to England and Israel, you can use these 5c airletters. But if you write to the United States you must put on an extra 5c stamp because the postage to there is 10c.

I also want to send you and the twins some pocket money so that you can buy sweets, stamps and anything else that you might need. But I am not sure how much to send you. Will you write and tell me what you think? And should I send the money to you, for you to keep and to give to the twins, or should I send it to Mrs Mokhele? You don't have to worry about Milisawa, as I am making separate arrangements about her.

I hope I shall hear from you soon.

With a lot of love to you and the twins,
