Robert S. Bilheimer
Senior Minister

50 Plymouth Avenue North
Rochester, New York 14614

June 24, 1966

Dear Benjamin:

Thanks so much for your letter of May 25 containing much good news from you, or at least news that is good to have. I am terribly sorry that your health has not been so robust and certainly there is no wonder that this is true. I do wish and pray that the pressure upon you could let up.

My home address after July 1 will be 80 E. Hartsdale Avenue, Hartsdale, New York and the business address will be 475 Riverside Drive, N.Y. City 10027.

There is not much by way of news to pass on to you. I hope to be seeing Beyers this summer in Geneva. It is just possible that my son may be in South Africa in July or August. If he succeeds in getting there he will have your name and address. I think of you very often and always with the greatest esteem and affection in hopes that we can soon meet.

Sincerely,

Robert S. Bilheimer
