

JOHANNESBURG.
3rd May, 1967.

My dear Mrs Sobukwe,

Thank you for your letter of April 30. I have pleasure in enclosing the R44 which you need.

I received your letter last week, but unfortunately it came just as I was leaving for a job in the Eastern T_ransvaal. Will you let me know when next you will be in town so that we can arrange to see each other again?

Last week I had a letter from Mrs Mokhele advising that the money I had sent had been received by her. She also said that she would write to me again on the question of the children receiving additional tuition in English.

I have also just had several letters from Bob who continues to be in as good heart as ever. He wrote me a long explanation of why he is no longer a Christian. He also said that the idea of giving tuition to the children in English met with his full approval.

I trust that you are keeping well.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

PUBLISHER:

Publisher:- Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand

Location:- Johannesburg

©2010

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

DOCUMENT DETAILS:

Document ID:- A2618-Ba5-33

Document Title:- Letter to Mrs Sobukwe (copy)

Author:- Benjamin Pogrund

Document Date:- 3 May 1967