Since the last General Council Meeting, NUSAS has launched its national campaign rejecting the <sup>new</sup> Constitutional and educational students around the Koornhof Bills.

Thus far the campaign has been particularly successful with 14,000 students signing the petition on a national level and 2,000 at Wits University.

The main focus has been educational, and this too has had a significant effect on campuses.

The campaign at Wits will end on Tuesday 18th October <sup>taking</sup> the form of a UDF meeting. Also a number of concerts are being held to raise funds for UDF.

We are at present also involved in organising for our National Congress which will be held at Wits in December
