people's protest "very explosive".

22/3/80: Police: "official spokesman": ATC to continue its anti-farmer demonstrations. Demonstrators given strict instructions to not use violence. "Our plans are to be arrested in great numbers until satisfaction is offered by a better proposal. We shall not stop until farmers have been abolished. We will not go to court for violence & continued display of military might by the police is an unwieldy people. Our is a non-violent struggle."

ATC: Not true: very gen.

23/3 Vanderland reply to public query by News:

Why did police fire? "To be about 25,000 Natives, narrow their circle round the police, when they do not want to listen to the police & are blind with rage, then there is no choice."

+ Was crowd asked to halt? "If they were asked once they were asked 10 times. The only reply from the crowd was 'no'."

referred to "a bloodbath with a loss of more than 25,000, each armed with a stone and a knife."

Why did police not aim below the knees? - "official reasons say that more than 80% of the wounded were hit below the waist. Every shot would have killed a native had the police aimed to."
