

3rd September, 1965.

Dear Mr Whyte,

Enclosed please find an account for R66.00 for the school and hostel fees for three of the Sobukwe children. Mrs Sobukwe advises me that the money is due at the end of this month.

I know the kitty is a bit low, and I wonder whether there is enough in it to pay for these accounts? I have written -- some while ago -- asking for more cash, but am still awaiting a reply. Have you heard direct, perhaps? In case there is not enough in the kitty, is it possible to advance the money until funds are replenished? I will gladly stand surety for it.

All good wishes,

Yours sincerely,
