Dear Mrs. Pogrebe,

I received this school fee account from the boarding school about two weeks ago. I am supposed to pay it before the end of this month.

Thanks you very much for the parcel you sent to Bob. He thanked that you spent a good deal of money on those things you bought for him.

I must start applying for the permission to visit him. I wonder if they will be able to help me this time with the train-fare. The train will also be required to pay for their journey.

I am,

Sincerely,

Penina
