Dear Mr. Champion,

I wish to intimate to you that Mrs Boka has safely landed in Johannesburg. Please accept my sincere apologies for having overlooked the necessity of informing you prior to now.

The manner in which you attended to my friend whilst there, has reached my notice and I very much wish to extend you my sincerest appreciation for your kindness and consideration.

We are having quite a busy time with Congress matters and relative issues and we are also having a very cold climate particularly at this time of the year,

Thanking you for your kind favours,

yours faithfully,
