

Moscow, 8/5/26

Dear Mamie.

I wonder how you all are now. I haven't much hope that this letter will reach you soon, unless the situation will change. Your last letter, that was before the general strike was declared I received, but since then I have not heard & do not suppose for the time being there is any chance of receiving regular letters. However I shall keep writing in the hope that you will receive these in a few days. Has Sundyoff arrived? Have you seen him? I am sorry events have developed finding us cut off from one another. Of course we are not the only ones, there are many people I trust in this way. Let us hope that it will not be very long before I will be with you again. You will of course understand that my position is a great deal worse than yours. You know what is happening whereas I am in the dark & imagine any thing. I hope & trust you will get through these days without any harm to any of you. If I could fly over I would.

I trust you will not suffer in any way. I am writing to Sundukoff & others to see through, & assist temporary your position until I am able to come to your assistance.

I am the hope to hear from you soon anxiously and if news with love I am
