REGIONAL PART-TIME WORKER

I. APPOINTMENT

The regional worker is discussed and accepted by all sub-groups. Discussion is co-ordinated by the executive, but final ratification takes place at the National Committee.

II. CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

a) Working hours.

Working hours are considered to be four hours per day. Hours of work are to be flexible as dictated by the needs of the specific work in question. However, activist time is not to be considered as working time.

b) Discipline.

The worker shall be subject to the discipline of the organisation.

c) Finances.

The worker may not at any time handle finances.

d) Mailing Lists.

Mailing lists are to be kept confidential at all times.

e) Security Police.

There is to be no collaboration with the security police or any other government agencies.

f) Executive.

The worker should attend executive meetings regularly.

g) Expenses.

IV. DESCRIPTION OF WORK

a) General.

Work is defined by the sub-groups but co-ordinated by the executive. Sub-groups should therefore submit description of as well as reasons for required work to the executive and not directly to the part-time worker.

b) Specific tasks.

Secretarial. The worker is available to assist with all typing and mailing of correspondence.

Press. The worker may assist in the delivery of press packages, but may not issue press statements.

Chairperson. The worker may assist the chairperson in compiling and sending regional packages, as well as updating regional files.

V. DISMISSAL

a) General.

Dismissal is formally carried out by the executive, but the decision is made by the region.

b) Notice.

Normally one month's notice should be given by either ECC or the worker. There are however exceptions (see below).

c) Exceptions.

If collaboration with the security police is revealed, the worker will be dismissed immediately.

d) Banning.

In the case of the organisation being banned, payment for that month will be honoured ~~provided circumstances permit.~~

e) Detention.

In the case of detention the salary will continue to be paid.

f) Review.

The worker will report-back periodically to both the chair and the internal co-ordinator. Assessment of the work will take place in the executive and sub-groups should channel all discussion to them.

The worker shall be subject to a thorough review after two months.

VI. SALARY

The regional worker will receive an amount of R400 per month.

REGIONAL PART-TIME WORKER

I. APPOINTMENT

a) Procedure

The regional worker is discussed and accepted by all sub-groups. Discussion is co-ordinated by the executive, but final ratification takes place at the National Committee.

b) Review

The worker shall be subject to a three month probation period.

II. CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

a) Working hours.

Working hours are considered to be four hours per day in a five day week. Hours of work are to be flexible as dictated by the needs of the specific work in question. However, activist time is not to be considered as working time.

b) Discipline.

The worker shall be subject to the discipline of the organisation.

c) Finances.

The worker may not at any time handle finances. (This is to mean the functions of the treasurer, including the writing and signing of cheques issued in the name of ECC).

d) Mailing Lists.

Mailing lists are to be kept confidential at all times.

e) Security Police.

There is to be no collaboration with the security police or any other government agencies.

f) Executive.

The worker should attend executive meetings regularly, but will have ex-ificio status thereon.

g) Expenses.

a) General.

Work is defined by the sub-groups but co-ordinated by the executive. Sub-groups should therefore submit description of as well as reasons for required work to the executive and not directly to the part-time worker.

Press. The worker may assist in the delivery of press packages, but may not issue press statements.

Chairperson. The worker may assist the chairperson in compiling and sending regional packages, as well as updating regional files.

c) Review.

The worker is accountable to the region but practically will be assessed by the executive. Assessment of the work will therefore take place in the executive and sub-groups should channel all discussion to it.

d) Banning

In the case of the organisation being banned, payment for that month will be honoured.

e) Detention.

In the case of detention the salary will continue to be paid.

V. TERMINATION AND RENEWAL OF CONTRACT

a) General.

Dismissal is formally carried out by the executive, but the decision is made by the region.

b) Notice.

Normally one month's notice should be given by either ECC or the worker unless there is collaboration with the security police, in which case the worker will be dismissed immediately.

c) Renewal of contract.

The worker is appointed for one year only.

d) Leave.

The worker is entitled to twenty one (21) working days leave.

VI. SALARY

The salary is set by the national committee.
