

Summary of Aims of the African National Congress re Native Education.

1. Compulsory and free primary education for all African children of school-going age.
2. The provision of adequate facilities for post-primary education (secondary, technical, university and professional) at a cost within the means of the African.
3. State responsibility for special developments in African education such as that of pre-school and adult education.
4. Curricula in all types of schools in no way to what is provided for other sections of the population, and in particular special vigilance in regard to courses specially intended for Africans.
5. The financing of Native Education on a per caput basis from General Revenue and not from differential taxation in such a way as to meet current needs and allow for expansion.
6. State responsibility not only for the cost of inspection and teaching but also for the cost of buildings, equipment and other services.
7. Preference for qualified Africans in all types of appointments in all African schools and the gradual replacement of European teachers by Africans.
8. The payment of adequate salaries to African teachers to enable them to maintain decent standards of living and leadership and a suitable pension scheme to provide for their retirement.
9. Direct representation of African parents and teachers in all bodies such as Native Education Advisory Boards, School Boards, Governing Councils, School Committees, etc. entrusted with the shaping of policy or the management of schools and Colleges for Africans.

undated

Summary of Aims of the African National Congress re Native Education.

1. Compulsory and free primary education for all African children of school-going age.
2. The provision of adequate facilities for post-primary education (secondary, technical, university and professional) at a cost within the means of the African.
3. State responsibility for special developments in African education such as that of pre-school and adult education.
4. Curricula in all types of schools in no way to what is provided for other sections of the population, and in particular special vigilance in regard to courses specially intended for Africans.
5. The financing of Native Education on a per caput basis from General Revenue and not from differential taxation in such a way as to meet current needs and allow for expansion.
6. State responsibility not only for the cost of inspection and teaching but also for the cost of buildings, equipment and other services.
7. Preference for qualified Africans in all types of appointments in all African schools and the gradual replacement of European teachers by Africans.
8. The payment of adequate salaries to African teachers to enable them to maintain decent standards of living and leadership and a suitable pension scheme to provide for their retirement.
9. Direct representation of African parents and teachers in all bodies such as Native Education Advisory Boards, School Boards, Governing Councils, School Committees, etc. entrusted with the shaping of policy or the management of schools and Colleges for Africans.

Collection Number: AD843

XUMA, A.B., Papers

PUBLISHER:

Publisher:- Historical Papers Research Archive

Location:- Johannesburg

©2013

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of the archive of the South African Institute of Race Relations, held at the Historical Papers Research Archive at the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.